THE FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

(THE "GLASS" ANNIVERSARY) of the opening of

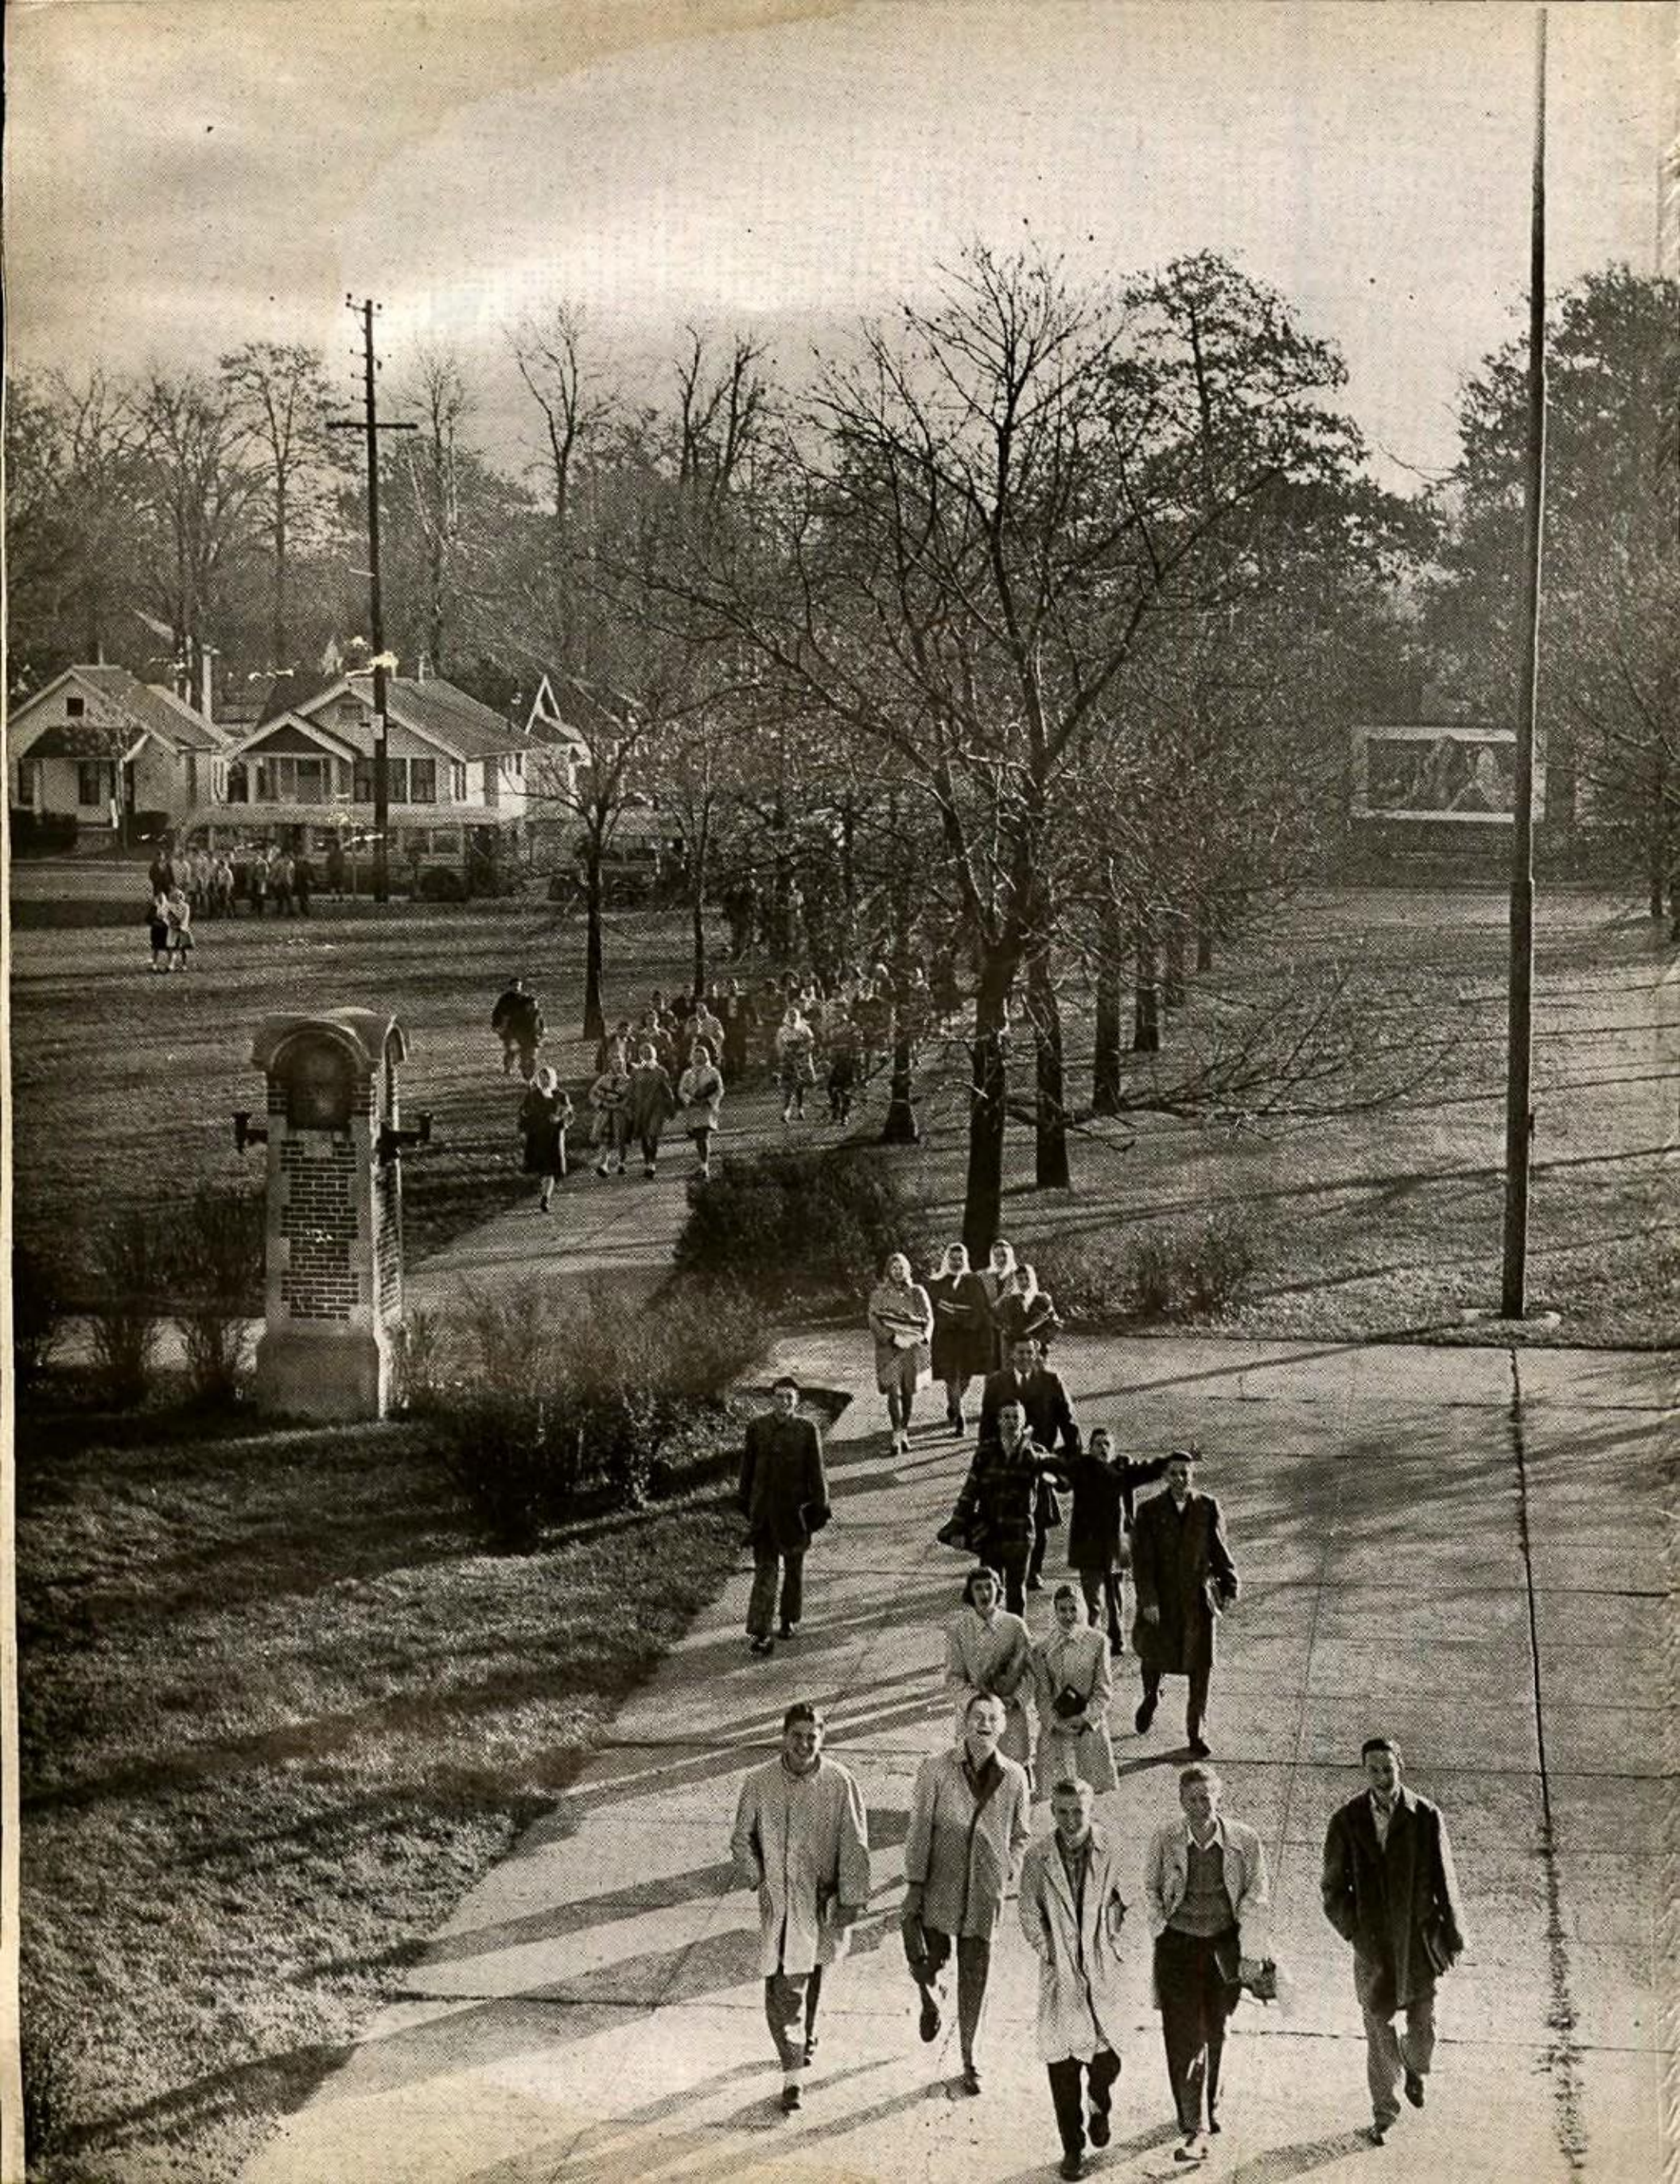
THOMAS A. DEVILBISS HIGH SCHOOL

IN TOLEDO, OHIO

(The "Glass" City)

1931 - 1946



WE HAVE AN ANNIVERSARY

THE SCHOOL YEAR 1945-1946 marked an important anniversary in the life of DeVilbiss High School. Fifteen years ago, in 1931, the first classes entered the doors of this school, and the fifteenth, in the language of anniversaries, is called the "glass" anniversary. Glass has long been identified as a major product of our city and the nature of this miraculous material lends itself splendidly to comparison with the nature of the student. This comparison is the theme of this Fifteenth Anniversary issue of the Pot O' Gold.

Glass is a magic word. It was once a great luxury of royalty but in our world its many marvelous forms are within the reach of every man. Our city is built upon the strength of its fragility and our citizens have played leading parts in the development of its wonders. Glass that can be spun and woven, glass that can support the weight of an elephant and form the most delicate goblet, comes from Toledo's great factories.

Just as undreamed-of beauties and strengths lie within a lump of molten glass, so do immense possibilities lie in the youthful students who enter the "furnace" of higher education. Our teachers, the artisans, work with patient skill to polish the rough forms that come to their hands and send them out as finished products.

Throughout the fifteen years thousands of boys and girls have come and gone—some to colleges, some to business, some to homes, and some to war. We honor all those young men and women who went into World War II, but especially do we pay tribute to the sixty-four former graduates who gave their lives. We who will graduate in a world at peace dedicate this book to the memory of those who won this peace for us.

The Artisans Set to Work

E. L. BOWSHER, Superintendent

Every large industry requires one firm, sure hand to guide its policies, and Mr. E. L. Bowsher, Superintendent of Schools, fills this position at DeVilbiss as our "General Manager". Our plant is but one unit in the chain under his direction, all controlled so impartially that his influence is felt equally in each. His is the job of choosing the finest artisans to shape his products, placing them at the furnace where they may do their best work, and seeing that the material reaches them regularly. He controls the general over-all production methods and has charge of all records and personnel. It is a job for an executive of high abilities—a job Mr. Bowsher fills most capably.

MERRITT C. NAUTS, Principal

Each plant in a large chain must have careful, intelligent, personal guidance in order to function efficiently. Mr. Merritt C. Nauts, Principal, acting as our "Plant Manager," has charge of all the innumerable small details that keep our school life smooth. It is his job to see that we are all happy — artisans and material — doing our work with harmony and efficiency, and he performs it well. Every DeVilbiss student will long remember with gratitude Mr. Nauts' constant interest in all our problems and achievements. His kind guidance and helpful suggestions have aided many of us in our progress through his "furnaces." His firm hand and warm heart have added the final polish to our days at school.

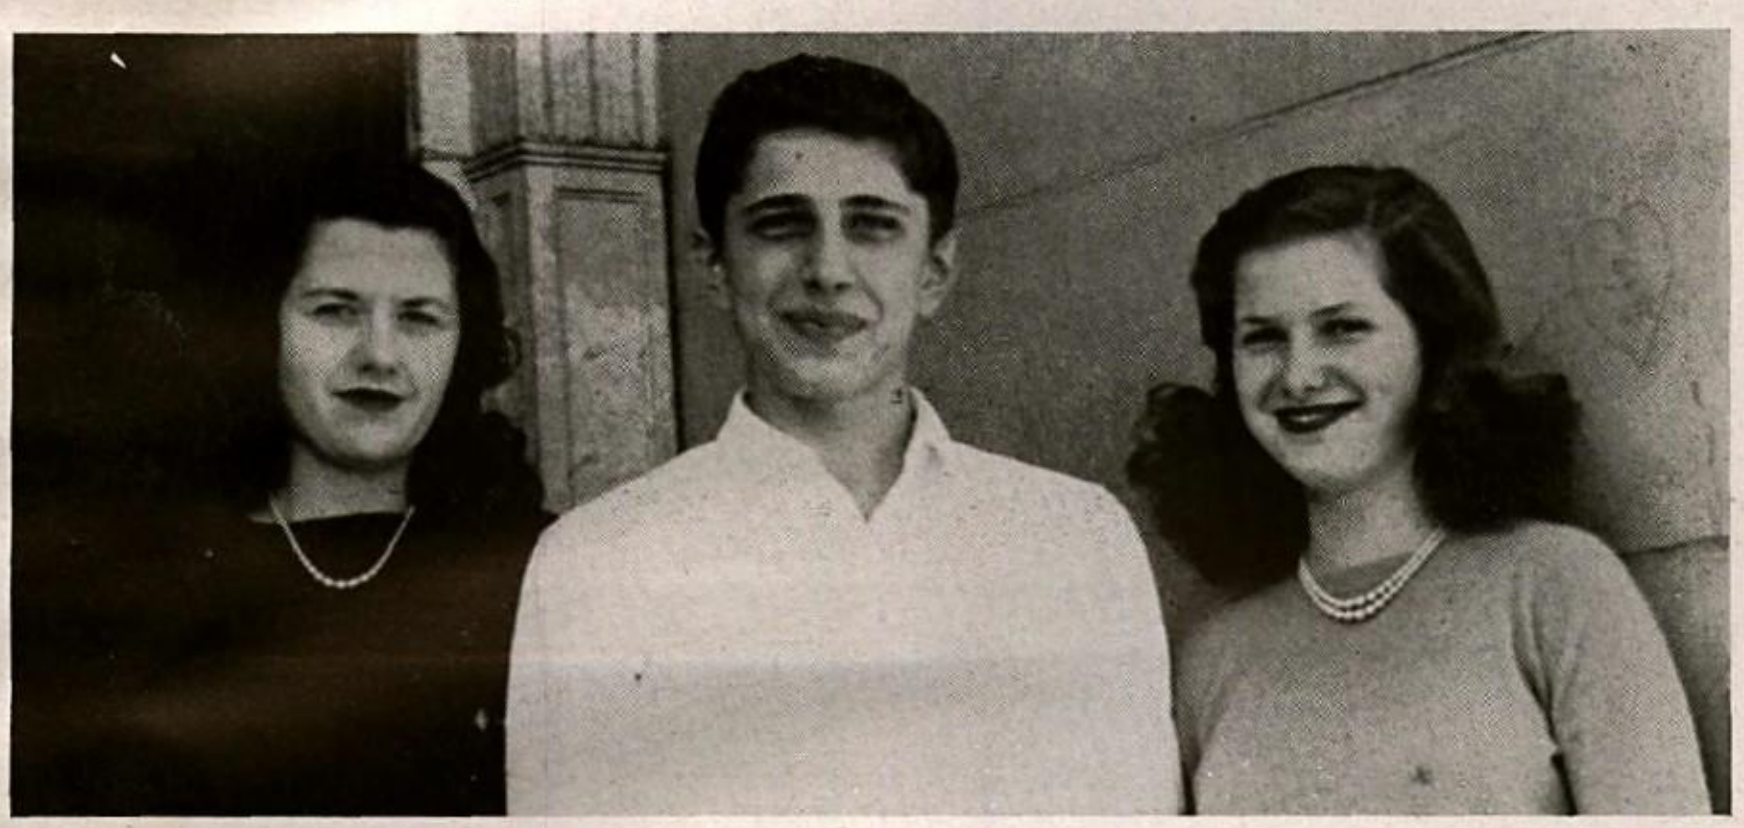
WHAT LABOR-MANAGEMENT committees are to industry, the Student Council is to DeVilbiss, affording an opportunity, through student representation, to assist in solving school problems. The Council conforms to a constitution very similar to that of our national government. The purpose of this organization is to direct the student activities in the school; to aid all school organization; to promote and better the welfare of the school; and to maintain and further school spirit in every possible way.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL



Inter-Club Council Officers: Nancy Lowry, secretary, Dick Ruehlin, president; Margie Pollock, vice-president.

ONE YEAR AGO the commissioner of organizations had a brainstorm. Since many old clubs had been reorganized, there was a need for smooth running among the clubs. He believed that if one member from each club would join together in a council, things would operate more smoothly; this council to be called The Inter-Club Council. It is now a standing committee of the Student Council and is composed of one member of each chartered club. The definite duties of this organization are: to propose all legislation concerning organizations; to plan dates to avoid conflicting places, time, etc., for club activities; to better the general welfare of the school; and to help make DeVilbiss truly democratic. Bringing the meeting to order and assuming the duties of president is Dick Ruehlen, a junior. Margie Pollock, a senior, is ready and capable of taking over the job of president in the absence of Dick. You can find Nancy Lowry, a senior, busily taking notes on all the proceedings. The clubs that are represented on the council include: Sharps and Flats, Freshman Hi-Y, Sophomore Hi-Y, Junior Hi-Y, Senior Hi-Y, Freshman Friendship, Sophomore Friendship, Junior Friendship, Senior Friendship, Junior Sorelles, Senior Sorelles, Chess Club, Periclean Literary Society, Spanish Club, Engineering Club, Zetaletheans, Home Economics Club, Roman Club, Girls' Bowling Club, 49'ers Club, Sub-Deb Club, Dramatic Club.

And now we have the matured and completed brainstorm—a valuable asset to our school. Little was it realized that this idea would materialize and be so successful. With everyone trying his best to co-operate we have a really bang-up government.

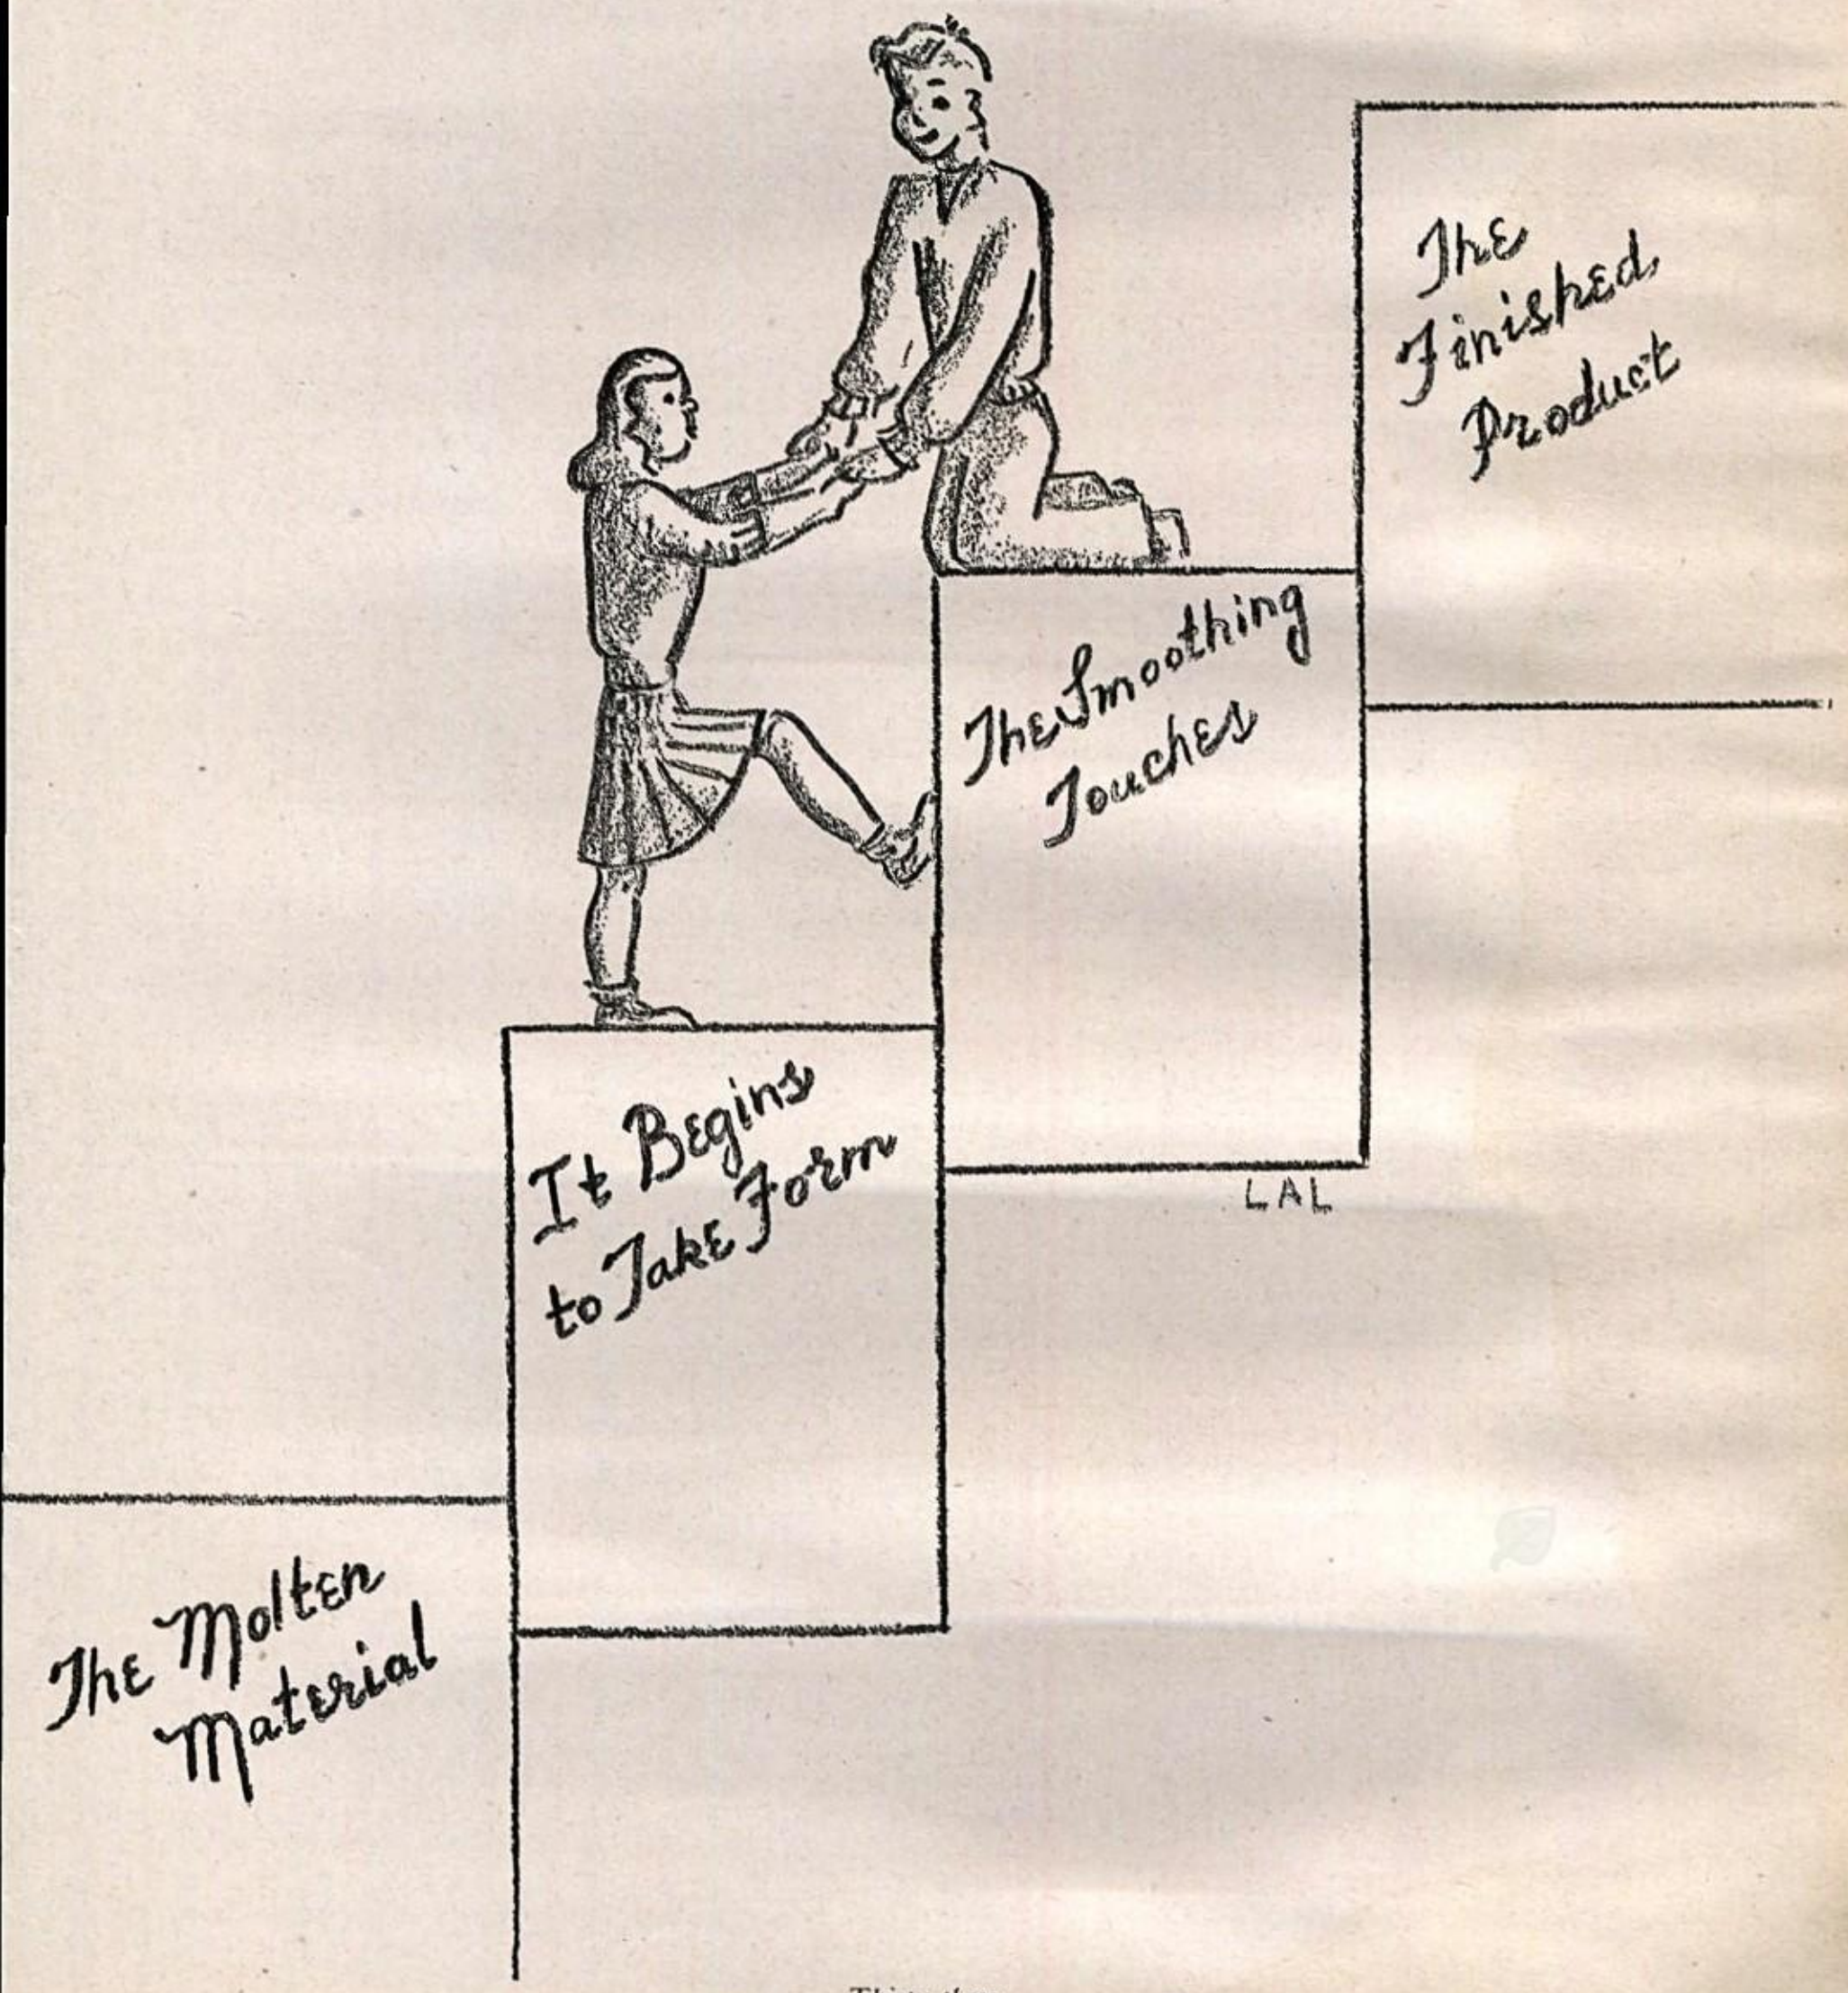
DURING THE WAR YEARS the Parent-Teacher Association strengthened its program and organization despite the restrictions due to the national crisis. Membership has been above the three thousand mark for two years. Programs have been fewer but better, bringing to DeVilbiss outstanding personalities. Special projects have included framing for preservation an old American naval flag dating from the 1790's as a historical relic for the school; the establishment of the DeVilbiss Men's Club under the leadership of Mr. E. A. Schlatter; the equipping of a room in the library with cabinet, sink, dishes, and all things necessary to serve teas for groups of parents and teachers or pupils; providing equipment for the nursery school center at McKinley School, where DeVilbiss pupils study child care; and giving encouragement and aid to effect a better music program for DeVilbiss. The annual bridge party was an outstanding event of the spring. An outstanding addition to the program of the P. T. A. is the organization and sponsoring of the "Forty-niners" as a social program for pupils in the ninth grade. This promises to become a most effective activities program for freshmen. The officers and committee chairmen extend their appreciation to all of the parents and teachers who have contributed to make the work of the association so successful.

Steps of Production



OUR YEARS IN SCHOOL have long been considered golden years—years of youth, joy, few cares, and worthwhile things, too. The class of '46 has spent the body of its years at DeVilbiss in a world at war; the class of '49 will spend its in a world at peace. Their memories of High School will differ a great deal. When the Senior class was the Freshman class, austerity was the rule. All the clubs that did not aid the war effort were disbanded and there was a strong drive to join the Victory Corps. The place abounded with badges, many of which were soon to be exchanged for regulation uniforms. The duties of the Red Cross were multiplied and students played an important part in the work through the Junior organization. They contributed large sums and packed hundreds of boxes for the children of stricken lands. They generously supported the Community Chest, which eventually combined all the foreign relief agencies as well as the U.S.O. for our armed forces and the usual local agencies. Students invested thousands of dollars in War Stamps and Bonds, once buying seventeen jeeps. Gym work for both boys and girls was intensified and such unfamiliar courses as Aeronautics and Morse Code entered the curriculum.

All these activities played a part in shaping the class of '46. These memories give it a personality distinctly apart from that of the class of '49. Yet they have much in common. All Freshmen enter this educational furnace with something of fear and trepidation in their hearts. They are starting on the greatest adventure of their lives and they come here eagerly seeking knowledge and fun—an insight into this business of living. They are the molten material. These young Freshmen advance a step and they are Sophomores. With the skill of trained artisans, teachers have deepened, widened, and directed their thoughts as one would work a piece of molten glass. They are growing up in the world and the product is beginning to take form. When they are Juniors the basic shape is determined and it is time to polish the rough spots and bring out the special characteristics of the individuals. The Seniors are the final result of the skill and care of the many people whose willing hands have aided in preparing them to enter the world as useful citizens. Every student of DeVilbiss will share this background of understanding interest. In the following pages are the beaming faces—all different, yet very much alike—of the classes of 1949, 1948, 1947, and 1946.

MR. BALSAM—M-13

Presiding this year over Mr. Carl Balsam's home room was Douglas Rust. Assisting Doug in the office of Vice-President was Pat Faris. The class elected Shirley Kline to take the minutes, while Anne Hardy was chosen to care for the money. Among the other necessary representatives were Janet Knierim, who sold Prisms, and Marilyn Ansted, who (for the second year!) took care of all the Red Cross business. Judy Sinclair held one of the most important positions: that of Student Council Representative. Patriotic Matilda Rainier sold War Stamps and Bonds to Room M-13. New members in the home room this year were Nancy Sloan and Nancy Johnson. Earlier this year Howard Eckel left us when he moved to Syracuse, New York.

We are anticipating two more enjoyable years at DeVilbiss which we can put in our already crowded book of memories.

Our room sold $170 in magazine subscriptions during the fall contest. The clubs actively participated in were the Sophomore Friendship Club and the G. A. S. Helen Bowers was a varsity cheer leader.

MRS. GUNN—243

You are hereby notified that this page does not contain the pictures of contestants for a beauty contest or applicants for a Charles Atlas advertisement, but they're a nice group and they can be found every day at 11:00 in Mrs. Gunn's home room.

Jim Miller occupied the President's throne. Standing by to assist him were Vice-President, Gormly Sanderson; Secretary, Jack Wood; and Treasurer, Don Guinther. Art Boote attended the Student Council meetings and distinguished himself in the battle of the Magazine Drive earlier in the year. Nancy Wilson handled all our Red Cross projects and Yvonne Martin sold us our Prisms. Ruth Carson was responsible for taking Pot O' Gold subscriptions.

One final word, dear reader. If you are going completely mad from the confusion of your home room, just pay us a visit and we'll show you a perfect half hour of serenity.

MISS JOHNSTON—327

Five days a week for thirty-eight weeks the members of Miss Mildred Johnston's home room went trudging up the three long flights of stairs to their home room.

All business matters were taken care of by our capable officers who were elected at the beginning of the year and are: President, Nancy Schorling; Vice-President, Paul Helm; Secretary, Sally Wonders; and Treasurer, Clark Kern. Jane Gerhart directed Red Cross activities in Room 254 while Lois Schmidt and Jim Yobst represented us at P. T. A. affairs and Student Council meetings respectively. Nancy Schorling was Prism solicitor and Joanne Imholt acted as the Pot O' Gold representative. We are justifiably proud of our Honor Roll students and we hope to add many more next year.

As we complete our successful sophomore year at DeVilbiss we are looking forward to a better and brighter future as juniors.

MR. S. B. EMERY—119

Regardless of the hustle and bustle in Room 119, we took time to elect Shirley Keats as combined President and Secretary. Phyllis Heine, who was our Secretary, had moved. As we had no money, there was no need for a Treasurer. Seeing that there were many positions in school activities to be filled we put our heads together and chose Edward Binkleman for our Prism solicitor, Nancy Prottengeier to get our Pot O' Gold subscriptions, and Floradel Mason to represent us at Red Cross meetings. So far we have had one class party which was held at Christmas time. Edward Binkleman and Owen Teaderman, a guest from another home room, entertained us with a magic show. Shirley Keats gave a monologue. In the two remaining years we have at De-Vilbiss we know our home room will gain the goal as one of the best in the school.

MISS KIMPTON—326

We of 326 are very proud of our home room. Leslie Noaker wielded the President's gavel and was assisted by Tom Marquardt as Vice-President. Charles Swyers was our Secretary, and we have yet to discover who wrote his minutes!

Donna Heffelbower capably handled the affairs of the Red Cross and Connie Herbst represented our room at the meetings of the Student Council. The selling of Victory Stamps was placed in the hands of Juanita Dipman. Every other week Carol Novack begged us to buy Prisms while Marian VanGorder was our Pot O' Gold solicitor. Our group is even better than last year for we have added the following new students: Connie Herbst, Joanne Wilcox, Wanda Whitney, Larry Rowen, and Robert Divens.

Earlier this year we suffered a great loss; Kathy Meeker, who was active in home room affairs, passed away suddenly.

MISS KERLIN—215

Every day "Miss Kerlin's Forty", or in other words her home room, enjoyed a half hour of study and social period in Room 215. Assuming the duties of chairman was Dick Helburn while Andy Scott faithfully represented us at each Student Council meeting. Tuesdays and Fridays would find Nancy Stalker and Beulahjean Markus busily selling defense stamps. Also fulfilling her job well was Nancy Hill who was our Red Cross representative. The fact that we had two new girls from California, one from Maumee, and a boy from Columbus, Ohio, made us think we had many interesting personalities in our room. Jim Villwock headed our home room Honor Roll with Five A's and closely following him were Ruth Crockett, Joan Crawford, Doris Bremer, Beulahjean Markus, Virginia Reese, Dick Helburn, Dick Smith, and Bill Steiglemeyer. All in all, we have a pretty good class.

MISS KIMBLE—254

One short year was sufficient to transform the timid freshmen who first entered Room 254 in September of 1944 into a group which, outwardly at least, possessed the self-assurance of dignified sophomores. We chose the following officers to guide us during our sophomore year: President, Bill Hubbarth; Vice-President, James Buss; Secretary, Jean Masters; and Treasurer, Jim Patterson. Dorothy Fash acted as our tie to the Red Cross while Jackie Schouten had the double job of Prism solicitor and Pot O' Gold representative. Rodger Wadsworth and Eleanor Nottingham were Student Council and P. T. A. representatives respectively. Our record in the magazine campaign did not cover us with glory, but we can take pride in our contributions to the Red Cross, March of Dimes, and other worth-while school projects.

If you're around next fall drop in and see us when we will be dignified upper classmen.

MR. MATHIAS—M-10

The long-lost Mr. Kingeter's home room has finally found a resting place! Let's see, at the beginning of this year Mr. Henry Mathias led the group in M-10. Mr. Voderburg then took over this home room for a week. Now the group from M-10 is permanently situated in Room 217 under the counsel of Mr. McMurray.

The officers for this year were as follows: President, Bruny Messinger; Vice-President, Tom Ludwig; Secretary, Dick Rice; Student Council Representative, Biff Hills; Red Cross representative, Brent Biggs; Pot O' Gold representative, Carol Michelsen; and Prism solicitor, Hazel Murphy. The G. A. S. was a popular organization with the girls. The Sophomore Friendship Club was attended also. Some of the boys were Hi-Y members and many played football or basketball.

We all look forward to next year when we will again resume our responsibilities as a home room.

MR. MERRILL—M-1

Taking charge of the gavel in M-1 this year was Bob Schneider and competently assisting him was Sue Kipperman as Vice-President. Phil Brunskill presided with paper and pencil and our pennies were counted by Reuel Rhinebolt, while Mr. Merrill kept a watchful eye on everybody. Prisms were sold to us by Patsy Christleib, and Carol Hiendel collected our parents' P. T. A. dues. In addition to her job as Vice-President, Sue Kipperman kept us informed on Red Cross activities. Johnnie McWilliam relayed to us the important data from the Student Council meetings and Reuel Rhinebolt in the earlier part of the year canvassed us for War Bonds and Stamps.

Having now completed our second year at DeVilbiss, we are all looking forward to being upper classmen and we all hope the next two years go as well as our previous two have.

MISS LUKENS—110

Upholding a fine standard as a top home room, Room 110 has completed its second year of scholastic and social activities.

The position of President was awarded to Phyllis Daso and assisting her as Vice-President was Virginia Varner. Peggy Lukens held the position of Secretary and Louis (Morganthau) Scheid handled our large bankroll. Dick Bishop was the room's Student Council Representative and Dorothy Gustofson attended Red Cross meetings regularly. Suzanne Boesel gave much of her spare time to the Pot O' Gold staff and Nancy Williams helped the Prism staff. Five new members were assigned to our home room this year. They are: Iris Spice, Suzie Shanks, Eileen Hickey, Don Crider, and Tony Bundros, who hails from Robinson Junior High School.

Under the leadership of a fine teacher and with a fine group of students, Room 110 has again fulfilled a busy and prosperous year.

MR. POLLMAN—153

Having been started this year, I suppose you could call Room 153 "The Melting Pot" of DeVilbiss, because it is made up of boys and girls from broken-up home rooms, and most of the new students who came to DeVilbiss. The chief ingredient, Mr. Norm Pollman, did a good job of keeping us all contented and happy. Ruth Kuehnl, our Prism solicitor, was kept busy running back and forth every other Tuesday to bring the Prism to us, while Ken Culp tried to make a good Student Council Representative. John Kelentic, one of our leading ingredients, earned a "D" playing lightweight football this year and Conrad Stolzenbach the Third won honors by having the highest grades in the room. Bob Feltis our everlasting "not here" boy, slaved during home room period by being on the hall patrol at the Cafeteria doors.

MRS. MILLS—106

Under Mrs. Mills, our able advisor, home room 106 has kept up its high standards of last year.

Our Vice-President was Jim Maher, who was a star on the varsity basketball team and a member of the track team. Handling the Secretary's job was Marilyn Ruhl while John Hingst took care of our money. Representing us at Student Council meetings was Jim Maher. Marilyn Fisher handled the Red Cross business while Nancy Anderson took care of the P. T. A. activities. Our Prism solicitor, Marilyn Ruhl, managed to sell 100% almost every time. Lois Campbell was our energetic Savings Stamp chairman. We are proud of our Honor Roll students and the newcomers to 106 have already become part of the friendly group.

Just watch home room 106 in the future and you will see one of the outstanding home rooms of DeVilbiss.

MRS. PASQUIER—218

Once again we of Room 218 are making our yearly appearance to give an account of our activities of the past year. Our capable President, Betty Gray, who was also President of the Sophomore Friendship Club, was assisted by the equally able Madelyn Sutton as Vice-President, while Jackie Brenneman had the double duty of Secretary and Treasurer. Representing us at the Student Council meetings was Ray Bersticker. Marian Hagerty sold War Stamps and Bonds and was also our Pot O' Gold solicitor. Dick Hewey peddled Prisms while Gilbert Punches took full charge of the Red Cross activities. Our Honor Roll was composed of the following students: Jackie Brenneman, Betty Gray, John Matthews, Madelyn Sutton, Kenneth Dowdney, Donald Lauver, and Mary Rowland.

As we complete another successful year in DeVilbiss we are looking ahead to a bigger and brighter future as upper classmen.

MISS SPAYD—252

We opened our year of events with the welcoming of two new students: Bernice Iannucci and Lorraine Kujawa. Robert Behrens led our class with Marilyn Power as his assistant. The minutes were kept by Marjorie August and our money was safe in the hands of Allen Wilhelm. The home room door was closed at 11:40 by Wylie Riggle. We bought Prisms from Donna Winterfeld and Pot O' Golds from Gordon Getz. The school meetings were taken care of by Jean Parkes for Student Council and Dana Keiser for Red Cross. Joy McCarrell was our P. T. A. representative. The nine girls in the G. A. S. were: Jean Parkes, Marilyn Power, Marion Rees, Glenna Opperman, Dana Keiser, Joanne Lankenau, Mary Bonner, Donna Winterfeld, and Marjorie August. The class was also represented in the Leaders Club, Hi-Y, and Friendship. We are looking forward to two more pleasant years at DeVilbiss.

MISS WILLOUGHBY—227

Sophomore home room 227 elected for the year's officers:

President.....Betty Wanner Secretary-Treasurer.....Dick Forrester

Dick Schumm was our Prism solicitor and Dick McAllister took care of the Pot O' Gold. Sue Grover looked after the activities of the Red Cross and Ted Bodenmiller sold War Stamps and Bonds to us on Mondays. We had four boys on the lightweight football or basketball team. They were: Ted Bodenmiller, Bob Eikost, Dick Forrester, and Tim Greene. Marilyn Mersereau, a cheer leader, represented our home room on the Student Council and was also a member of the Bill Preparatory Committee. Gay Kornick worked hard to be the highest magazine subscription seller but the whole home room deserves praise for their good work. The students on our Honor Roll were Gay Kornick, Sonia Berman, Marilyn Mersereau, Raymond Smith, Betty Wanner, and Virginia Holscher.

MISS QUINN—104

"Will this meeting PLEASE come to order?" requested our President, Lois Foor, as the home room clan of Aurelia Quinn started another half hour intermission with Vice-President James Whitten assisting her from the sidelines hoping someday to conduct a meeting. Our industrious secretary, Sally Balsmeyer, worked busily on last week's minutes. Alonzo Sargent had the privilege of collecting our dues. The young lady who sold us Prisms was Barbara Kerr, and Marilyn Brubaker was the "middle-woman" between our home room and the Student Council. The Junior Red Cross meetings were attended by Arlyne Stoll, while Virginia Butler took care of all our P. T. A. associations. Joan Thompson was our Pot O' Gold solicitor. Our home room was represented in athletics by Bill Blank and Joe Robie of the lightweight teams while Nick Demos honored us by being a photographer for the Prism.

So soft, so calm, yet eloquent,

A heart whose love is innocent."

—Lord Byron

What better description could one find of "Kathy" than that in these few lines of poetry? Energetic and full of vitality, she was a favorite with all who knew her, and one of the most popular girls in the Sophomore class.

A good all-around student, "Kathy's" interests were not confined to books and classroom work. She was very interested in art and had enrolled in a fashion art course. Her other interests included G.A.S., where she was a team captain, and the Friendship Club, of which she was a member.

"Kathy," however, is no longer with us. Last December she slipped quietly away. Her memory will live long in the hearts of the Sophomore class.

This year Room 112 was led by the following officers: president, Jacqueline Velleman; secretary, Billie Boshart; treasurer, Jeannine Schutt.

This was a typical day in Room 112. Marshall Spaulding was rushing around carrying an armful of Prisms; faithful Red Cross representative, Nancy Powell, was being assisted in her duties by June Seidel: Don Shreffler was rushing to the Student Council meeting; Pot O' Gold representative, Lawrence Beavers, was working hard; Stephen Binkowski and James Wiemer were forever cramming on either their or someone else's algebra; when P.T.A. membership time rolled around, Inez Okun was on the job.

Betty Luly and Dorothy Bokan were attentively watching Bessie Pullos design the latest fashions, and Paul Duggan was spending most of his time in the gymnasium managing the athletic teams.

The Junior-Senior Farewell Committee would have been lost without the helping hand of Phyllis Dale. We have always wondered why Helen Zolczynski always picked out those secluded corners to study her history. June Tussing was always talking to whom while Dick Flamand and Gene Kreps were doing their chemistry?

Hats off to Betty Hafner, our bookkeeping expert. The mirror in the room was being constantly monopolized by Ruthie Palluch; our automobile designers and engineers, Melvin Vadas, Eddy Markwood, and Jim Sunday were discussing their latest ideas on atomic-driven automobiles; Bud Sullinger's broad shoulders were attracting as much attention in the schoolroom as they did on the gridiron. Last of all was the guiding light of Homeroom 112, popular Mr. Archambo.

MR. BLANCHARD—323

Our homeroom elected our class officers early in the school year. Jim Crumley won the position of president, and assisting him, as vice-president, was Jim Root. Joanne Abel filled the position of both secretary and treasurer. The Student Council representative was Bill Teaderman, who gave an accurate account of every meeting. He posted the Constitution of the Student Council on the bulletin board so that we could become acquainted with the laws of our school. The class cooperated excellently with Marilyn Woessner, our Red Cross representative, in contributing to the Red Cross activities. Phyllis Jordan was our Pot O' Gold representative, assisted by Betty Ann McGannon. Last, but not least, was Lois Disher, who dashed into homeroom every "Prism Day" to sell her quota of Prisms to 323.

This year Mr. Blanchard's homeroom had new additions to its members: Betty Ann McGannon, Bill Teaderman, Bill Kaiser, and George Brandt, formerly of Miss Fischer's homeroom; James Perry, James Root, Don Messersmith, and Dick Mowery, former students of Mrs. Terhell's homeroom. Then too, from Oak Harbor High School, came Reigh Lentz.

We were well represented in athletics this year. Bill Teaderman and Don Messersmith were on the varsity football team, while James Crumley kept his legs busy jumping hurdles on the track team. Don Messersmith and Dick Mowery, with keen eyes for knocking down the pins at the other end of the alley, have helped DeVilbiss produce a good bowling team. Guess what Robert Clancy, Paul Henry, and Reigh Lentz did. They froze their fingers at every football game playing in the DeVilbiss Band. Last of all in the activities of Room 323 were Jim Root and Marilyn Abrahamson, who were co-chairmen of the Finance Committee of the Junior Class.

BLOOM-HIRTH—216-250

If you had listened in on these juniors during homeroom period you would have heard pounding typewriters, weighty discussions of profit and loss, or harmony deluxe. For these were the juniors of the Prism staff, Rooms 216 and 250, and of the A Cappella choir, auditorium (when they can get it). Not true homerooms, these groups included sophomores, juniors, and seniors. So we threw them together and here they are, except the ones who didn't arrive for the picture. Joanne Ziegler, Prism, chose that day to be absent. Several A Cappella juniors were in absentia; namely, Gordon Bricker, Bob Finch, Walter Frick, Bonnie Parcel, Margaret Rickerd, Dick Shannon, Bob Zeddis, Carmen Kniess, and Bob Holmes.

There were no homeroom organizations here because these rooms were organized on a different basis. But there were homeroom responsibilities which individuals had to carry. In Room 216, Elaine Wilkinson handled the Pot O' Gold, Joanne Ziegler was Red Cross representative, and Dick Ahrendt was Student Council representative. Dick Ahrendt, we might add, was also Junior Class president. Room 216 bragged about that.

In Room 250, Virginia Kitzman was Pot O' Gold representative and Bess Fuller handled Red Cross affairs.

In the A Cappella choir group Jim Strub was president and Mary Gallagher was vice-president. Margaret Rickerd kept the minutes. Charlotte Young was Pot O' Gold representative and Roger Balk represented the room on Student Council.

Activities in these groups were all connected with the choir and the Prism, from business to parties. Nearly all the students were active in school affairs and their beaming faces will be liberally sprinkled throughout this book.

This year we elected as leaders of Room 263: George Gettum, who has ably filled the position of president: Marilyn Woodgate, who works as vice-president with George; and Dan Noyes, who had a double duty as both secretary and treasurer.

Herb Baker, our Student Council representative, faithfully brought us a report of each meeting, and Ray Cannon encouraged our purchase of War Bonds and Stamps. Romaine Herman, our Pot O' Gold representative, collected money for our page and took subscriptions, and Bill Barkan was our hard-working Prism solicitor. Our Red Cross representative, Ann Girkins, had the honored position of Junior Red Cross President in the school.

And so another year passed and we members of Room 263, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Jeanette Brand, survived! 1945-46 is gone but never let it be said that the efforts of our willing homeroom workers were forgotten. For, from the first week of school to the last, our goals were reached. Our first suspender snap was due to the fact that Ed Fluevog, our own pride and joy, became the junior's choice for class secretary. We also prided ourselves on having three homeroom enthusiasts on the J-Hop Committee: Ray Cannon, Bill Osterman, and George Gettum. It also had been rumored that Ann Girkins worked on the Social Committee. While all this committee work was "on the fire," our cross-country representatives Dick Grimes, Dan Noyes, and Walt Churchill were "burning up the course."

Busy as we were, various homeroom members still managed to make the Honor Roll. They were Bill Barkan, Sharyn Cruey, Barbara Coble, Tom Conser. Ann Girkins, and Bill Osterman.

And so with striving for the magazine drive, busy students hunting madly for knowledge, and Mrs. Brand pleading for peace and quiet, the busy members of Room 263 completed another year!

In a schoolhouse called DeVilbiss
Where the halls are straight and narrow
And the closed doors all with numbers
As far as eye can see.
Two and seven with one before it
Is the one which beckons us.
This is where we gather daily
When the hour of noon is past.
This is home to thirty juniors
And it really is the best!

(With apologies to Longfellow)

Early in September, we elected the following officers to preside at our meetings in Room 127: president, Barney Bartley; vice-president, Ginny Linker; secretary, Clarence Yeager; and treasurer, Jane Laures.

Tom Sawyer did his duty as Pot O' Gold representative by taking subscriptions and collecting money for our page, and Dolores Dunning did her best to make our Prism sales 100%. We were well represented in the Student Council by Bernard Driscoll. Jackie Brott, our Red Cross representative, got our support in the various drives.

We were able to boast of six students on the Honor Roll. These "scholars" were Fadwa Haney, Margie Southard, Doris Ann Bowen, Mary Vosburgh, Jane Laures, and Ginny Linker.

Many of us were active in school clubs. Fadwa Haney was president of the Junior Friendship Club. We have members in the G. A. S., Bowling Club, Science Club, Engineers Club, and Hi-Y. We had two athletes in the class: Jack Evans and Barney Bartley were on the football team.

MR. CRUEY—210

"Joe, take your seat," was Mr. Cruey's opening greeting to the class in Room 210. "You kids get something to do," was his next statement and it went on like that until the bell rang at 1:00 to relieve Mr. Cruey of his noisy brood. And noisy it was, for everyone was constantly talking about everything from the food in the cafeteria to trying to figure out Mr. Cruey's "Periodic Chart of the Elements" hanging on the wall.

The leadership of this over-enthusiastic junior homeroom was handled by Don Adams, who was elected president; Al Leake, who assisted him as vice-president while he pondered over his chemistry; and secretary, Dave Jeffrys, who never really had any minutes to keep.

Our able Student Council representative was Porter McDonnell, and our Athletic representatives were Kathy Hoyt and Joe Heiny. Betty Hepflinger had her hands full trying to get money for subscriptions and for the page in the Pot O' Gold. She filled her job as solicitor very well. Sally Koepp showed good salesmanship in selling the Prism to members of Room 210. She usually was very busy writing scripts for the morning announcements since she was a member of Miss McHugh's script-writing class.

We were sorry to lose Joyce Jackson early this year. Her family moved to Detroit but she came back and visited us in January.

Our room also has a representative to bolster school spirit. She is lively Kathy Hoyt, the blond cheerleader you saw at every game.

Homeroom 210 has representatives in many of the school clubs. Dave Jefferys and Bob Overman were members of Hi-Y, Sally Koepp and Kathy Hoyt were in Junior Sorelles, and Bob Bretherton was a member of the Spanish Club.

MRS. GREUNKE—219

We of Mrs. Greunke's homeroom started off our junior year with the election of Dan Reed, who capably filled the job as president of Room 219.

When Prism sales reached 100%, we praised Phyllis Kirchoffer, Prism Solicitor, for being such a good saleswoman and doing her job so well. Phyllis Guerber, our Red Cross representative, helped our homeroom fill our quota of gifts and money to the Red Cross. Homeroom 219 was represented on the Student Council by Virginia Seeman, who was elected by that organization to be chairman of a committee to revise the Student Handbook. Betty Keirns reminded us each week to keep up our payments on our Pot O' Golds.

Our homeroom was represented on the football team by two strong members, Bob Heyman and Floyd Gadt. Floyd was given honorable mention among high school football players by the newspaper for his excellent playing. Two other homeroom members, Bob Holland and Lowell Cummins, belonged to the wrestling team.

In almost every organization were representatives from Room 219. In the Spanish Club there were Barbara Thomas, Duane Berry, Ralph Engfer, and Virginia Seeman; the G.A.S., Audrey Drew and Betty Keirns; Hi-Y, Charles Nelson; Junior Sorelles, Barbara Thomas, Virginia Seeman, and Millie Wilson; Bowling Club, Millie Wilson, Joan Sorensen, and Betty Keirns; the Sub-Debs, Suzanne Burns and Audrey Drew; Junior Friendship Club, Audrey Drew; Biology Club, Loy Rusie; Debate Club, Suzanne Burns; and Dramatic Club, Suzanne Burns.

We were very sorry to lose two of our homeroom friends at the beginning of the school year. Bess Fuller became a member of the Prism Staff, and Bonnie Parcell joined Mr. Zaugg's homeroom as a member of the A Cappella Choir.

Not in picture: Dosia Carlson, Dick McDowell.

Just as the blackboards of room 113 would tell you that $X + Y = Z$, so the occupants of that room would tell you that a good bunch of kids plus Mrs. King equaled a swell homeroom.

The officers that we elected to lead us through our junior year were Jane Diehl, president; Mary Erler, vice-president; Lawrence Walborn, secretary; and Bill Jones, treasurer. Dick McDowell faithfully brought us reports of Student Council meetings, and David Epstein kept us informed of Red Cross activities. Neil McLean risked his life twice every month in his position as Prism Solicitor, and he was almost mobbed by eager buyers. Also eager to relieve us of our money were Carrollee Hefty, P. T. A. representative; Ronnie Raab, War Stamps solicitor, and George Valassis, Pot O' Gold representative.

New students welcomed into our group were Nancy Rettig, Nancy Wagers, Phyllis Saner, Ramona Lowe, Neil McLean, Bob Grimes, Norm Weber, and Alvin Grover, who informed us that Rising Sun had a population of 999 after he left.

Because of Mrs. King's insistence upon study we were able to boast of eleven members on the Honor Roll.

Junior Committees also were well supplied with members from 113. Ann Woodruff was co-chairman of the Publicity Committee, Lou Stansbury served on this committee, and Nancy Rettig was on the Social Committee. The Junior Play Committee claimed Mary Erler and the J-Hop was helped to success by Ann Hamilton and George Valassis.

Active in sports were Bob Grimes, varsity basketball; Norm Weber, varsity football; Jim Grover, manager of varsity basketball; and George Valassis, swimming. This accounted for the orange "D's" that were flashed around the room.

In a secluded corner of the second floor is found homeroom 249 under the able guidance of Miss Kratz, Junior Class adviser. The job of president was well taken care of by Tom Gorton, assisted by Bill Brewer, vice-president. Bob Elkins hurried about busily doing his double job as secretary and War Stamp solicitor, while Ruthann Spring did fine work as the class treasurer.

The P.T.A. drive at the beginning of the year was greatly helped along by our homeroom, for we boasted of fifty-four members brought in during the campaign. On Prism day Ruthann Spring had to use no persuasion to sell a hundred per cent in 249. Marilyn Britton, our Red Cross representative, collected $5.70 for Red Cross boxes which were sent overseas.

On December 8, the class joined in for a lot of fun at a splash party given in the Y.M.C.A. Jean Pfund was chairman, and the chaperones were Miss Kratz and the parents of some of the homeroom members. Everyone had a wonderful time, and it will be one of the things we can look pleasantly back on when we have to say goodbye at the end of our senior year.

We found three new members in our group this year: Pat Merickel from Longmont, Colorado; Richard Welti from Temperance, Michigan; and Charles Kennedy from Mount Penn, Pennsylvania. We were glad to welcome them into the homeroom.

We were proud of our three band members and of our orchestra member, Jerry Emery. Bob Elkins and Ted Olnhausen did a fine job on the football team, and Phyllis Koder represented us on the Student Council.

In our senior year we hope to do a bigger and better job toward making our homeroom a pleasant place in which to be.

MRS. KRAUSE—247

It was 12:35 and, as usual, Marilyn Warner, our secretary, came strolling in at the last minute. Red Cross representative Jackie Lirr, Prism representative Janice Spencer, War Stamp representative Susan Good, and Pot O' Gold solicitors Barbara Miller and Ruth Recknagel were all rushing around the room trying to make 247 come out on top.

Over in the corner we found Frank Wilson, Lois Yingling, Virginia Wilson, and Marie Cone discussing their history. Bill Rudy, our most able treasurer, was counting our money with a fiendish gleam in his eye. Bob Terry, our Student Council representative, Jack Hazle, Jim Manny, and Manning Spooner were discussing the latest basketball results. Bang! All of a sudden we saw Jack Hazle on the floor! That taught him not to lean back against the wall.

Dick Henning was enjoying himself talking to Susan Good because his job as P. T. A. representative was done. LaDonna Eller, June Hudson, and Yvonne Lewis were discussing the latest gossip.

Jim Huffer, vice-president, had just come in after taking some pictures for the Prism. Marilyn Pettis, Jane Keck, and Billy Selter were giving the rest of the group a disgusted look, for they wanted to finish a little left-over homework. Ted Morgan (as usual) had Jane Laibe, Jackie Livi, and Barbara Moon cornered and was telling them his woman troubles.

Our president, Howard Warner, was doing his duty on the hall patrol and keeping his eye on the homeroom at the same time. Myrma Welshimer was also doing her duty by selling War Stamps in the bookroom two days a week. The class suddenly became quiet when a trumpet flared and Mrs. Krause walked into Room 247.

MRS. LEGRON—161

My goodness, have you ever heard of a homeroom falling? Well, we did. Maybe not so far as the Honor Roll is concerned, but last year we were members of Room 261 and now we are in Room 161.

One thing, however, has come along with us; that is, we re-elected our homeroom president from last year, Clyde Stedcke; our vice-president was Louis Treen; our secretary and treasurer was Molly Adams; Pot O' Gold representative was Nancy Nemire; Red Cross representative was Marilyn Ingwerson; and Student Council representative was Jim Revell.

We had six contributions to the school Honor Roll. The students who were rewarded for their studies were: Molly Adams, Jim Revell, Lottie Bienko, Marilyn Ingwerson, Joanne Swarts, and Nancy Gass. In addition to this, we had an excellent representation on the Junior Class Committees. Molly Adams was co-chairman of the Junior-Senior Farewell Committee, and Jo Swarts, Nancy Gass, Jim Revell, and Ginie Hinsey were members of some of the other committees.

Jim Revell, Clyde Stedcke, and Ken Ostrander were doing well in boys' sports. DeVilbiss spirit was bolstered by Joan Stachowski, who led cheers, and Bernadine Baron, who was a majorette.

Good ol' 161 was active in school clubs too. We were represented in the Junior girls' bowling team, in which Helen Starry was the top scorer. Other bowlers were Jo Swarts, Ginie Hinsey, Carol Brunskill, and Nancy Gass. We were represented in the Junior Sorelles by Jo Swarts, Molly Adams, Carol Brunskill, Connie Ellis, and Alice Eichman. We also had a few members in the G.A.S.

At the beginning of the school year we gave Fred Schultz the honor and title of "President of Homeroom 253." Then we duly appointed John Stoffel vice-president; and Marianne Renshaw, secretary. Next we elected as our various representatives: Nancy Kurth, Red Cross, who has ably done her duty, and Dorothy Liberty, Prism solicitor. We were extremely proud of our Student Council representative, who was elected to the Bill Preparatory Committee of the Council.

We have been very active in the Junior Red Cross. Don't act as if you didn't believe it. Well then, just take a peek at our record. Nancy came in one day and announced that the Red Cross was collecting boxes for children in Europe. Did room 253 do its part? Of course we did. In fact, we filled not only one box but two of them! Just before Christmas our homeroom also gave a gift to a sailor at the Naval Armory through the Red Cross.

This year our Honor Roll was not very well filled but Dorothy Liberty, Charles Green, Bob Johnson and Fred Schultz succeeded in making the qualifying grades during their junior year.

Room 253 was also represented in many school activities. We had members in four school clubs: the Sharps and Flats, the Engineers, the Hi-Y, and the G.A.S. Bob Johnson, Jim Krupp, and John Stoffel were well known for their athletic ability.

Marilyn Miller was on the Organization Committee of the Inter-Club Council, and Jack Henry, well known comedian around DeVilbiss, was co-chairman of the variety show committee. Last of all, Room 253 did its share to turn out food for DeVilbiss. Pat Delaney and Evelyn Snyder both worked in the cafeteria this year.

Bang! went the gavel as Charles Petro, class president of homeroom 226, brought to order the Friday business meeting. "First of all, we will have the reading of the minutes of our last meeting." As soon as Janie Lou Fearing finished reading the minutes, Chuck asked, "Is there any business the treasurer feels necessary to discuss at this time?"

Dick Kirk stood and announced that the people who had not paid for the page in the Pot O' Gold should do so, and it should be paid to Shirley Brokaw, Pot O' Gold representative. He continued by saying our treasury had been increased by the collection of tax stamps. The tax stamp committee was headed by Mona Moss and Mary Marihugh.

"Red Cross announcements, please." Polly Barraco, our able Red Cross representative, reported that there was no new drive to announce. "Rosita Erausquin, do you have a report on our Prism sales or is the 100% marker on our door significant of your report?"

"When are you going to have time to do our algebra homework?" shouted Bruce Chambers, junior class treasurer and vice-president of Room 226, to Howard Frank, varsity football player.

Barbara Christen, our War Bonds and Stamps representative, then reported that we did very well in the last drive.

"By the way, Mrs. Luther, who was on the Honor Roll this year?"

"Bruce Chambers, Mary Lou VanBuren, and Jamie Lou Fearing. Good work!"

Pat Ellis of the Social Committee announced that the Halloween Party and the Christmas Party our homeroom had this year were super!

Just as Chuck was about to adjourn the meeting, the bell rang and the students were off to their fifth hour classes.

MR. PASQUIER—205

For three years, we of Mr. Pasquier's room, 205, had spent a pleasant half hour together each school day. Many good friends had been made and we had many things to be proud of. Everyone knew Anson "Dutch" Spohler, one of the school's top-flight football and basketball players. He was our "shining example," but there were many other excellent athletes from our homeroom. These other strong sportsmen were Howard Mercer, Joe Urschel, Jackson Smith, and Jim Moffet.

We elected one of the star athletes to lead our homeroom this year. He is Joe Urschel, who was assisted by Nanette Drake, also president of the newly-formed French Club. We trusted Jim Sakel to handle both the minutes and the small amount of money of Room 205. Red Cross contributions were well handled by our representative, Sam Maran. Our Prism sales were high because of the efforts of our solicitor, Jim Moffet. Joan Sanford, Pot O' Gold representative, did her duties accurately and efficiently. The boy who represented us in the Student Council was Jackson Smith, who gave us excellent reports of the meeting.

We had many activities outside our homeroom, too. The French Club, the Junior Friendship Club, Hi-Y, G.A.S., the Chess Club, the Sharps and Flats, and the newly organized Bowling Club had members from Room 205. We were also proud of the eight people on the Honor Roll and of our representation on the Junior Committees. Jim Moffet was co-chairman of the Junior Play Committee.

Our able adviser, Mr. Pasquier, supplied miniature chess and checker games and "Look" magazines for us after we finished our studies. You could always find John Peterson and Bill Tolbert having a game of chess if you happened to enter our room.

Room 102 was represented in athletics by Larry Andrews, football and basketball, and Duane Hall, track and cross-country. Angela Killinger handled the Prism for our homeroom and Pat Brown, the Pot O' Gold. In the Student Council we had Duane Hall. In the Red Cross, Room 102 had two representatives, Betty Jo Chilcote and Kenneth Cole, who represents the Junior class at the Junior Red Cross Council.

In Room 160, you will find a group of juniors who have progressed with pride to this rating, so we think. Although we have had different homeroom teachers each year, we have stayed together pretty well and are now led by Mrs. Stoepler.

At the beginning of the year we had the election of our homeroom officers. We decided only to have a president and a secretary. These positions were won by Charles Waidelich and Pat Binding. Pat was on the staff of the Pot O' Gold, so we didn't see her much this year.

For news of the Student Council meetings our representative, Gordon Boos, was on the job and kept us well posted. Jane Longbrake of the Pot O' Gold and Barbara Sawtelle of the Prism saw that we subscribed to their respective publications. Betty Northrup, our Red Cross Representative, and Alice Mills, our War Stamps solicitor, helped up empty our pockets for their good causes. Marilyn Boysen was the representative to the Parent-Teacher Association.

We were proud of our Honor Roll members: Barbara Sawtelle, Betty Allen, Pat Binding, Jon Voltz, Bill Butler, Charles Waidelich, and Gordon Boos. We hope these people will keep up their good records.

Allan Brogan represented our homeroom in the Boys' Athletic Association and also took part in football and basketball activities. Bill Gardner raised the score on the bowling team and Chuck Woodfill played on the football, basketball, and track teams.

One of our homeroom members, Susan Thurston, left at Christmas for Massachusetts and is attending school at Bryantville, Massachusetts.

Room 224 reporting! Accounted for as president was David Yeasting; vice-president, Cathy Brown; secretary and treasurer, Julie Miller. These capable and efficient officers were elected at the beginning of the year. Activities representation is as follows: Student Council, Mildred Herman; Red Cross, Pat Householder; Prism, Caroline Freed; Pot O' Gold solicitor, Elizabeth Avvett, and Pot O' Gold representative, Suzanne Spross.

We enjoyed the freedom to execute our plans and programs without too much supervision, but when a difficult problem came, we were always gratetul for the willing help of our adviser, Miss Marie Stoll.

Our room contributed a Christmas gift for the Navy Separation Center. We took up a collection and bought a money wallet.

In the drive to secure canned goods for the U.N.R.R.A., the boys competed against the girls, thus insuring us of obtaining our quota. It was a heated contest and proved to be lots of fun.

Jack Weber is on the varsity track team and several other boys have shown progress in this sport.

We were sorry to lose two of our homeroom members this year, but to offset this we added four new members. Those we lost were: Betty Walkup, who moved to Kentucky at the beginning of the school year, and Suzanne Spross, who left after the first semester to attend a private school.

We were very happy to have had Lois Cannon, Caroline Freed, Mildred Herman, Don Ketterman, and Dotty Longthorne represent us on the Honor Roll for three years. We know they will keep up the good work their senior year also.

POT O' GOLD

The harried staff of this Class Anniversary issue of the Pot O' Gold needs a round of ice-cream cones to soothe their shattered nerves. What upset their nervous systems? I can see you have never been a solicitor!

The solicitors enter room 164 in search of "someone in authority", bearing a delicately anxious expression guaranteed to scatter the staff. As they catch sight of Faculty and Organizations Editor Nancy Lowry, she agiley exits with Freshman and Girls' Athletics Editor Ruth Kane, crying to Junior Editors Sylvia Stansbury and Janie Schrider, "What happened to that list?" They try a nearby door and are met by wrathful Panel Editors Paul Brinker, Joan Spearing, and Bob Loshbaugh waving glue brushes to the general tune of "Can't you read?" It does say "NO ADMITTANCE", but who would ever dream—!

Withdrawing rapidly they collide with Ad Manager Jack Webb who sweeps off shouting to his aid Betty Jo Chilcote, "I got 'em, I got 'em". Typist Joanne Hardy skips in waving a sheaf of copy at Literary Editor Katharine Heywood and her assistant, Carol Eichman, who sigh and return to their proofreading. Art Editor Lois Ann Levy flourishes a pen and demands loudly, "Someone give me an idea for this picture!"

The solicitors draw near Feature Editor Jackie Bode who is displaying one of Mr. Pross' prize pictures to Senior Editors Shelda Ryburn and Jackie Diller and Girls Athletics Editors Virginia Grocott, and Joanne Birkenkamp, but the bright expressions of Photographers Sue Warnke and Jim Huffer seem encouraging. Venturing a question, they are speedily informed "Don't know a thing about it, Pal." They hesitate to approach Editor-in-Chief Bud Boesel who is aiding Sophomore Editors Carol Johnson and Suzanne Niles in identifying pictures and simultaneously shaking a T-square over Boys Athletics Editor Charles Woodfill, snarling "Deadline!" They seize upon Tom Conser and are blandly told "I'm just an assistant, Colleen Sweeny's boss Business Manager. Besides, you want to see the circulation people."

At the mention of circulation, Assistants Pat Binding and Nancy Rettig leave in quest of those ice-cream cones. The happy solicitors at last find Circulation Managers Marianne Sanders and Louise Milne. While Mr. Stalker gets involved in a weird formula which appears to have something to do with layouts, they voice their questions: "What if—" and are coldly informed, "Too late, chum. Come back tomorrow." Really, you don't know what they go through. These solicitors!

✯ ORGANIZATIONS ✯

PRISM

This year marks the fifteenth birthday of the Prism. To celebrate that fifteenth year of "Breaking School Life Into Colorful News", the staff is giving a typical Prism party up in Room 216. Come on in and meet the heads behind the headlines.

Here's Prism photographer Nick Demos, getting some snappy snaps of the gang. He's got a candid shot of Joanne Ziegler, girls' sports editor, telling Elaine Wilkinson and Kate Crothers, associate editors, some super-scoop news. Eek! "Smitty" DeSmet has discovered a pickled grasshopper in the fifteen-candled birthday cake. (Bob Dixon, managing editor, and Jay Wright, news editor, look distinctly guilty). Over in the corner, sports editors Dick Ahrendt and Don Kennedy, with associate editors Phil Neitzel and Joe Hendrikx are amusing themselves with a little game of cards. John Laird, Bud Miller, and Jean Fadden are admiring the Prism "birthday" gifts—a new jar of paste, three shiny pairs of scissors, and two boxes of headache tablets. Busily doing "K.P." duty in the kitchen is Diz Zackrisson, editor-in-chief.

Meanwhile, the choir of reporters is harmonizing on "Happy Birthday to You". Joining in are Irene Collins, Joanne Drews, Pat Faris, Marilyn Hamann, Romaine Herman, Rosemary Hoefle, Carmen Kniess, Joanne Lankenau, Jim Miller, Jim Moffett, Alfreda Morris, Herbert Steele, Bill Steffens, Bonnie (the Voice) Wensinger, Nancy Williams, and Donna Winterfeld.

Here come the members of the advertising staff—Bess Fuller, Allen Adler, Mickie Kitzman, and Tom Simon, with Carl Thielman, ad manager, following up. Huffing and puffing to blow out the last candles on the cake are publicity assistants Ann Woodruff, Alice Eichman, Selma Goerlich, and Jim Strub. Publicity manager Joyce Mitchell and script writer Ann Girkins are, meanwhile, engaging in a strictly business conversation. Enjoying their cake and ice cream are Carol Cromwell, sales manager, and Betty Dolgin, business manager. Oh, there's Harold Minke, sales assistant, sneaking another piece of cake!

Watching over festivities are Miss Elaine Hirth, business adviser, and Miss Rose Bloom, literary adviser. Discussing the 1945-46 Prism, they remember the homeroom potlucks, Prism Service Day with all staff members shining shoes and washing windows, and the frenzied "dummy days" before the paper went to press.

SENIOR FRIENDSHIP

"Please, the meeting will have to come to order!"

After this statement, Loisann Levey, our president, wonders if we know the meaning of the word "order". But soon fate steps in (Miss Samsen, our adviser) and all is quiet on the Senior Friendship front. Jo McGrogen, our chaplain, then leads us in prayer while Ruth Kane, our efficient secretary, counts noses to see that we are all here. Donna Rowe and Bev Brown, our respective vice-president and treasurer, sit in a corner talking about the millions in our treasury. They are worried that we might have to pay income tax.

Just about this time our committee heads dash in. Pat Etters and Barbara Renn, our social chairmen, are still talking about our hayride. Grace Pizer, our historian, comes in with a dozen books about the club's history, while Mary Ann Papenfuss and Phylliss Tanber straighten out our membership. Virginia Grocott and Joyce Mitchell, chairmen of publicity, are seen with paint brushes behind their ears, ready for action, while Arlene Leonard, our welfare chairman, is still collecting seeds and sweaters for our drives.

One of the main purposes of our club this year was to acquaint each girl with different types of colleges. During the course of the year, we had many speakers from all of the well-known colleges.

Throughout our four years in the Friendship Club we have learned many of the social problems that confront us. By being a friendship girl we will know how to face them.

Well, I guess this just about finishes the business for our high school year, but we know our memory of the Friendship Club will be everlasting.

SENIOR HI-Y

For four years we have been striving to maintain the purpose of the Hi-Y—"to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community the high standards of Christian character." This year it has been gratifying to have had a number of members elected to high offices and they have exemplified this purpose in fulfilling their duties. Bob Buckley headed the Student Council. In the senior class, Al Kane, Jim Arbaugh, and Don Robertson were president, vice-president, and treasurer, respectively. Three were commissioners: Ernie Roehrs, Sam Mulopolus, and Don Gilbert.

Twelve new members were inducted into the club on November 15, making a membership of thirty.

In the athletic field, our basketball team had a successful year. During Christmas vacation we won the Toledo Senior Hi-Y Basketball Tournament. There were eight members on varsity football, basketball, track, golf and tennis teams.

High-lighting our social program was a pot luck dinner for our dads and a surprise dinner party given in honor of Al Kane who left us at the second semester to take advantage of a scholarship he received from Michigan State University.

The officers of our club were Jim Hunt, president; assisted by Bob Power, vice-president; John Rightmyer, secretary, who took over for Dick Pio when he had to resign due to Swing Inn activities; Don Robertson, treasurer; and Mr. Don Schafer, adviser.

Our club had a very successful year due to the efforts and co-operation of the committees and the following chairmen: Jim Arbaugh, project; Russ Moore, social; Bob Buckley, program; Al Kane, athletic; Bob Dixon, publicity; Bill Skinner, initiation; Jack Fish, membership; and Chuck Charpie, special projects committee.

JUNIOR FRIENDSHIP CLUB

Along with entertaining themselves the girls have found time to live up to their motto, "To find and give the best", by filling a basket of food at Christmas for a needy family. They also participated in the "Sweaters for Holland" drive sponsored by the Y. W .C. A. Interclub Council of Toledo Friendship Clubs. A trip through the Holy Rosary Cathedral was one of the earliest events of the year.

Personal consultant at the Y, Mrs. Marie Miller, spoke at one of the meetings on personal relations. At another meeting, Miss Ethel Norman, Interracial secretary, held a very interesting discussion on brotherhood. An active part was taken in the February Hi-Y Friendship Forums.

Holding the gavel was Fadwa "Fudge" Haney, president, assisted by Nancy Rudes, vice-president. The events of each meeting were recorded by Margaret Rickerd, secretary. The key to the treasure chest was in the possession of Julianna "Julie" Miller, treasurer, and Jamie Lou Fearing was chaplain. Our programs were planned by Nancy Rudes and Sue Niles. Marilyn Woodgate was social chairman; Glenda Crosby, service chairman; Elaine Wilkinson, publicity. Dorothy King represented us in the Hi-Y Friendship Council and Beverly Jo Williams and Marilyn Donnelly in the Y. W. C. A. Interclub Council, of which our president, Fadwa Haney, was also president.

The girls agree that most of their success is due to the thoughtful and careful guidance of their advisers, Mrs. Dorothy T. Mills and Mrs. Alton K. Miller.

JUNIOR HI-Y

It was the pounding of the gavel in the hand of President Jim Root that brought the meetings of the Junior Hi-Y to order each week in the past school year. The other club officers were Bob Overman, vice-president; George Gettum, secretary; and Bruce Chambers, treasurer. Mr. Phillip Schaefer, our adviser, helped us a great deal and for that we are very grateful.

Some of the reasons why we had such a good club can be attributed to Don Schlatter, program chairman; Tom Conser, social chairman; Eddie Fluevog, membership chairman; Jim Revell, athletics chairman; Dave Yeasting, publicity chairman; and Phil Grover, service chairman. Thanks to Herb "Dutch" Baker, our sergeant-at-arms, we had a little peace during our meetings.

The club's social affairs were highlighted by the Junior Hi-Y Dance of November 16. Everyone had to work a little but that was all right since it turned out to be a swell dance. There were also other events that added to the enjoyment of the club. Movie parties and an occasional splash party were held throughout the year.

The club received a pat on the back this year as it helped support two of its members into class offices. They were Eddie Fluevog, secretary, and Bruce Chambers, treasurer.

Don Schlatter, our program chairman, provided many excellent speakers for our club meetings. Through the courtesy of these speakers we were told about many new things.

No club is complete without the usual initiation of new members into the club. Initiations are liked by all members of the club except the newly initiated members. Eddie Fluevog was in charge of the initiating of the new members this year.

SENIOR SORRELLES

After a few years of inactivity Sorelles was resumed last year and is being continued this year.

If you should sit in on one of our Sorelle meetings you would hear us singing our Sorelle song, which we composed ourselves.

Syb Stansbury, our president, would then call the meeting to order and Jean Ann Schroder would read her notes from the previous meeting. Barbara Pennypacker would be heard begging for dues.

We chose as our Welfare project this year, the North Toledo Community house. On December 21, we enjoyed giving these girls a Christmas party. Both Junior and Senior Sorelles helped in planning the affair. Also during the Christmas season we joined together and sang carols in the DeVilbiss halls.

Among the group, you would see our two wonderful advisers, Miss Stoll, and Mrs. Sutter. They have both helped us make our projects more successful.

During the year, Sorelles had two slumber parties. Naturally everyone had a nice soft bed and got at least eight hours sleep.

Sorelles have sponsored two dances. One called the "Basketball Bounce," which was held after one of our DeVilbiss basketball games, and the other, a barn dance held at Trilby Log Cabin, on May 24. All of the girls enjoyed working on these dances.

After settling all our old and new business, the meeting would then be adjourned. I'm sure that after you left, you'd understand why our sergeant-at-arms, Margie Lunn, was heard talking in a whisper.

Each Sorelle has a bracelet, on which is lettered "SORELLES" which means "Friendliness". We have completed many wonderful projects and have had an unbounded amount of good times which was due to our friendliness for all.

✯ ORGANIZATIONS ✯

JUNIOR SORRELLES

The Junior Sorelles started the year with a bang by electing the following capable officers: Sally Koepp, president; Selma Goerlick, vice-president; Sue Spross held the position of treasurer until transferring to a school in Boston, and now Betty Jo Chilcote takes care of the money. Ann Girkins is secretary, Barb Thomas opens the meetings with the Lord's Prayer, and Sue Niles keeps order, being sergeant-at-arms.

Among the events enjoyed by the Junior Sorrelles this year were a slumber party, held at the home of Connie Ellis; a bake sale; and a Christmas party which took place at the North Toledo Community House. Among those who served on the committee for the party were Ginnie Seaman and Betty Jo Chilcote.

After the closing of school we will spend a week at Lake James. We also look forward to more slumber parties, bake sales, and good times for the rest of our time at DeVilbiss.

In the earlier part of the year we agreed to change our conduct at all following meetings; to be less boisterous, not to bring homework, not to wear jeans and on the whole be more quiet and attentive. We find that this system seems to accomplish more than a rowdy atmosphere.

Late in the year the Junior Sorelles received the silver identification bracelets which were ordered in November by our treasurer Betty Jo Chilcote.

Many of our members had an active part in school affairs. Sally Koepp served as co-chairman of the Junior Play Committee, and Molly Adams was co-chairman of the Junior-Senior Farewell Committee. Others had parts in the Junior Play. Nancy Rettig assisted on The Pot O' Gold Staff along with Sue Niles, Betty Jo Chilcote and Jane Schrider.

We are hoping that next year will be as successful as this one has been and that the friendships which we have made will be with us for a long time after we graduate.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY

To obtain further benefits from engineering and technical subjects is the aim of the Engineering Society of DeVilbiss. Any student taking mathematics, science, or industrial arts, and who maintains a passing grade in all subjects is eligible to become a member of the club upon the payment of the semester dues.

Paul Brinker leads the society at all meetings, presiding as president. In case of Paul's absence, vice-president Morton Schomer takes over the meeting. Jotting down notes in the corner is Ray Cannon, who holds down the position of secretary. Dan Noyes takes care of all financial affairs of the club. Keeping the club in the eyes of the school is the job of Dick Ahrendt, publications representative. Bernard Driscoll's main duty as program chairman is to plan all meetings and extra programs.

Meetings are held on the first Monday of every month. The president has the power to call additional meetings when necessary. Highlighting the year's activities were a few trips to factories and other business establishments by the Council. The members of the club also attended numerous engineering lectures at the University of Toledo, sponsored by the Toledo Technical Council of which we are honorary members. The co-advisers are Mr. Carl Balsam and Mr. Norman Stalker. They accompany the boys on tours and also supervise the meetings. Working on the suggestion of Mr. Stalker, one of the jobs the boys are proud of, was the beginning of a file on the engineering colleges. It is our wish that in time we may have a complete record of each engineering school. Each member had the name of two or three schools to write to, asking for all the data that they could send us, so that in the future club members will be able to plan their high school program early, according to the requirements of the school of their choice.

At the next to last meeting of the year, the organization concluded the year's activities by holding a banquet. The officers for the coming year were elected at that time.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

This year the "Home Economics Club" was reorganized for the benefit of all students who have taken some form of home economics while in high school. Meetings of our group have been held in room 224 and at the homes of some members.

We students of the Home Economics Club have pledged ourselves to help improve some of the conditions that we have come in contact with as students here at school. Our main purpose is to explore the field of home economics more thoroughly.

Composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, our club meets on the first and third Friday of each month. Guiding our activities has been adviser Miss Marie Stoll. Jacqueline Finch officiated as president, Bernadine Baron, vice-president, Arlene Stoll, secretary, and Joanne Ladig, treasurer. Other main duties have been given to Lucille Able, supervisor of all committees. Assisting her is Jean Hanson.

Our club's activities have included a Christmas Party at Arlene Stoll's house, which we enjoyed immensely. We displayed our art skill by decorating a portion of the halls for the Christmas spirit. On January 4, we sponsored the "Cooky Cut-up" dance after the Waite and DeVilbiss basketball game, which resulted in one of the finest dances of the year. An "Out to Get New Members" party was given February 15, which was very successful for new members were as follows: Colleen Spencer, Frances Dotson, Mercedes Matusek, Joanne Hood, Jean Splitgerber, Ken Crossman, Bud Sullinger. Gerry Morton, social chairman, planned this party.

The busy bees of our club have been none other than Eldonna Seawater, Marilyn Otley, Yvonne King, and Phyllis Matusek.

Our proudest achievement can only be, to keep the hot coals of this club burning for many years to come. Come on you eligible students, join up. We know you'd like us.

SHARPS AND FLATS CLUB

Here we are, all twenty of us. And have we had some good times together! We have attended several concerts during the year such as the "Messiah", an organ recital, "The Requiem", and the Minneapolis Symphony. Also, we had several parties during the year, one of which was our Christmas party, held in the home of Mary Gallagher. This was preceded by caroling in the neighborhood. We had a gift exchange, played some games and had refreshments. During the month of December a sledding party was scheduled at the home of Roger Balk, but rain prevented this; however, we all had a wonderful time, and it was at this meeting that the skit, "Ferdinand The Bull", which was our club's successful tryout for the DeViltries, was presented to us by Joseph Henry for approval.

Another project on which we beam is our club's Christmas decorations in the school hall. This won first prize over the other school clubs' decorations, but it took many hours of devoted time to construct this clever fire place, which was a mantel with stockings suspended from the top.

Conrad Stolzenbach the Third was host for the January meeting which was held in the Student Union of Toledo University, and we are proud to say, all members except two were present. Up to date this is our finest attendance.

Our officers from last year were doing such a fine job that we unanimously elected them for a second term. The officers and chairmen remain as follows: Jim Strub, president; Margaret Rickerd, vice-president; Kathleen Henry, secretary; Jim Huffer, treasurer; Joseph Henry and Bill Rudy, program co-chairmen; Conrad Stolzenbach III, Fred Schultz, and Leslie Noaker, telephone committee; Dick Schumm, Bonnie Parcell, and Charles Nauts, membership committee; Carolyn Freed, social committee; and Mary Gallagher, publicity chairman.

BOYS' BOWLING

Under the supervision of Principal Merritt C. Nauts, DeVilbiss bowlers organized into three groups to enter competition in city high school bowling for the 1945-46 season.

The National League Team proved to be tops among D. H. S. bowlers as the DeVilbiss lads amassed thirty-three wins compared to nine losses to wind up a successful season in first place. Prospects for a championship team again next year appear bright as all six team members will return. Five of the six, Phil Neitzel, Captain Bud Miller, Bill Gardner, Dick Mowery, and Bill Tabbert are juniors while Jack Breese is the lone underclassman, being a freshman. Gardner was the spark plug for the Nationals as he came through with "hot games" various times to help immensely in downing stubborn opponents. Macomber was the most persistent as they were only three games behind DeVilbiss as the season drew to a close.

The not-so-fortunate American Leaguers and the Tigers, also situated in the American League, found the going tough and had to settle for sixth and seventh places, respectively. However, both teams did considerably better in the tournament which followed the regular season. The Tigers were edged out by the champion Woodward team of the American League after throwing a scare into them, while the DeVilbiss bowlers whipped Central easily before being knocked out by Woodward. American Leaguer Howard Sawade topped all DeVilbiss bowlers with a 169 final average besides holding the second highest game rolled during the season, that being a 247. Sawade also ranked second in high three game total with 630. Other American Leaguers were Captain Jim Arbaugh, Dick Warrick, Manning Spooner, Dick Saxer, and Dick Scott.

Don Messersmith and Chuck Petro led the Tigers fight to stay out of the cellar as they ended the season just two games from that spot which went to Waite. Petro also rolled good balls in the tournament as did team-mate Bernard Driscoll. Other Tiger Team members included Captain Jim Hill, Bill Dombrowski and Dave Eichman.

PERICLEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

"Will you members please stop peering into the dining room, and force your literary (??) minds back to the business at hand?" pleads Rosemary Hoefle, Peri President, as she tries vainly to conduct a bi-monthly, Wednesday meeting.

The chatter of fifteen junior and senior girls ceases, and we hear our vice-president, Maryse Kelley, say, "What about DeVilbiss Week? It's up to us to organize the popularly called "week of calamity".

"That's right", roar the junior members of the clan. "But, of course, we're only new members, and couldn't possibly do any work." At this, sergeant-at-arms, Dorothy Zackrisson, begins sputtering, and it takes both the recording secretary, Pat Potter, and the corresponding secretary, Carol Cromwell to calm her down.

"I think we should have a treasurer's report," ventures some one (probably the treasurer herself); so Kathie Heywood stands up, book in hand, and amid a dead silence begins. "Now let's see—the Peri Prom, given after the first basketball game, brought us a profit of twenty-eight dollars. However, there was our Christmas party, the cost of decorating the north entrance during the holidays, our Valentine-Mother's Tea, and a page in the "Pot O' Gold". Since few of you have paid your semester dues the final balance recorded here is—".

Before Kathie has a chance to finish, a collection is taken to buy her a bottle of red ink.

With this, our hostess appears at the door of the dining room with tea and cake. In their mad rush, none of the Peris see the smiles of their good natured advisers, Mrs. Nelle Anderson and Mrs. Gertrude LeGron, or hear the clock strike nine as another Periclean meeting ends.

ZETALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

This year, as members of the Zeta chapter of the Zetalethean Literary Society, we feel we have accomplished much in our stride for literary knowledge and good fellowship.

At first is didn't look as though the "Zets" were going to succeed, but after a membership drive in which the girls were divided into two teams to see which team could bring in the most new members, the club began to blossom out under the watchful eyes of our two capable advisers, Miss Marjorie Warner and Miss Leah Scheuren.

Speakers, book reviews, plays, and other literary programs were amply provided by our program chairman, Arlyne Stoll.

Social affairs, which included a Christmas party, Valentine party, Spring roast, theater party, and progressive dinner were planned by Betty Luly.

Our publicity was handled by Gloria Walker.

Attractive pins were purchased by the group. They were introduced to the club this year.

We hope to get started early next fall and have an even more successful year.

The society's eventful year was under the leadership of Marilyn Woodgate, president; Joan Thompson, vice-president; Ellen Crampton, secretary, and Betty Luly, treasurer.

We would like to take this opportunity especially to thank our president, Marilyn Woodgate who worked very hard to make this year a success.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, now in its second year of activity since its reorganization, has advanced considerably toward becoming one of the popular clubs at DeVilbiss. Membership was again restricted to only advanced students.

The activities this year have been varied and immeasurably interesting. We have acquired new pins for the first time, due to the majority's wish for some type of emblem to represent our club.

The purpose of "La Junta Espanola" is to obtain and develop a better understanding of the nations of Spanish origin and to aid in the advancement and furthering of interest in the language itself. Moreover, we have tried to present a speaker who might have information in regard to the preceding topics. We were fortunate to obtain Mrs. Norma Frizzle Stolzenbach, who talked to us upon the literary genius, Lope de Vega. Mr. F. G. Schwalk also spoke about his experiences in Mexico. Miss Nancy Jane Chopin, a student of Oberlin College, and Miss Betsy Houghton, a student of Toledo University, both talked on their experiences in Panama and Mexico, respectively.

We participated in the Christmas pageant and had, as our assignment, the decorating of the cafeteria. We were rewarded for our labors by the position of second place in the school due to the capable assistance of many talented members of the club.

We meet on the last Wednesday of every month in homes offered us by the members. Duane Hall was elected to preside over the meetings for this year. He is capably assisted by a very thorough staff. Bill Osterman is vice-president and program chairman; Jane Schrider is secretary; Rosemary Hoefle balances the ledgers. Virginia Seaman was elected chaplain. We are guided by Mrs. Backus, Miss Marian Smith, Miss Mildred Schmidt, and Mrs. Mills.

SOPHOMORE HI-Y

This year the Sophomore Hi-Y participated in many activities in addition to its regular weekly meetings and programs. Foremost among these was the city-wide Sophomore Hi-Y Basketball Tournament, in which we entered three teams, winning first, second and fourth places. The teams were composed of John Fewell, Fred Haase, Phil Brunskill, Frank Racy, Les Gerke, Carl Schwamm, Bob Buss, Bill Hubbarth, Jim Shroeder, Tom Marquardt, Hiett Ward, Dick Schumm, John Jacobs, Ted Rohweder, and Charles Nauts. High scorers were Hiett Ward with thirteen points and Jim Shroeder with ten points.

We also attended, as a group, the Hi-Y Friendship Forums, at which current topics were discussed. Among the speakers were Vice-Mayor DiSalle, Mr. John Black, and Mr. Gordon Jeffries.

On the social side we had a roast, a hallowe'en party, several theater parties, and a ping-pong tournament. As a group we attended a football game, two dances and a roller skating party.

This year our general program aim has been to discuss and analyze the problems facing a high school boy today. A great aid to our program was the state Hi-Y convention in January, which followed the theme "Hi-Y Building Tomorrow." Attending the conference from our club were Mr. Kurt Harsch, adviser, and Charles Nauts. Committee chairmen this year were Program Committee, Chuck Casey; Athletic Committee, Bob Drake; Social Committee, Bob Zweigle; Membership Committee, Phil Brunskill; Camp Committee, Dick Schumm and Dick Gehring; Rooms Committee, Les Gerke.

BAND

As the football season, with its rousing marches, draws to a close, the DeVilbiss High School Band turns its attentions to a different type of music. Bach and Boogie are now in the spotlight. Representing the classics are "Atlantis," "Perpetual Motion," "Pavanne" and others. The eight-to-the-bar rhythm comes out in "Boogie Woogie Band" and "At the Gremlin Ball." Included in the repertoire are many more moderate compositions such as Jerome Kern's "All the Things You Are" and "Three Blind Mice At A Night Club Floor Show."

The band has been asked to play for several important functions such as the presentation of the Army-Navy "E" award at the Swartzbaugh Manufacturing Company, special ceremonies at which Selective Service workers were honored, and The Toledo Industrial Safety Council.

A tour of the elementary schools in the DeVilbiss district and a spring concert are being planned by Mr. Zaugg. Elected by the band to assist Mr. Zaugg with social functions are Charles Holmes, president; Bill Houser, vice-president; and Pat Stacey, secretary.

The instrumentation of this year's band is well balanced including fourteen trumpets, twelve clarinets, five saxophones, five trombones, five drums, two alto horns, a French horn, a brass bass and a string bass. Drum major, Jim Serviss, lays aside his whistle and baton to pound the tympani.

MARCHING BAND

The "rat-a-tat-tat" of the snares and the "boom-boom-boom" of the big bass drum marks the approach of the DeVilbiss High School Band. A shrill whistle, the swing of the baton, and the drum major gives the "roll off" signal. The drums beat and the trumpets blare as they swing into the familiar strains of the school song. Following close upon the heels of our drum major, Jim Serviss, are our flag bearers, who so proudly carry "Old Glory" and the "Orange and Black," and our eight majorettes, whose costumes display the rainbow colors of DeVilbiss. This is the picture presented at all football games. When the band plays, it peps up everyone with more school spirit and helps the "Orange and Black."

Some of the world's famous marches such as Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever," "Semper Fidelis," and "Anchors Aweigh" are played by the band.

Again this year the band was rated among the best in marching and in organization and much of this credit must be given to Mr. Philip Zaugg for the co-operation and leadership that he has developed in this group in the three years he has been at DeVilbiss.

Let us say, in conclusion, that we are sure the student body realizes how much it owes to the band and that in the future the students will work to further the cause of this worthy organization which has contributed so much to the school. Next year's band is expected to be one of the best DeVilbiss has ever had as only four members are seniors this year.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

Ya know, we think we're pretty good, we singers of the A-Cappella Choir! We all love to sing and we manage to have a lot of fun doing it. Just ask Mr. Zaugg, our director. He gets a little bitter about some of our fun at times, but then when we do a good job, really make a fine showing (as we did at the Lion's Club), he gets over his grief. We were all very proud of that performance, as we have been most of the times we've sung.

We're sort of an odd 4th hour homeroom in that we're made up of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. We have our officers, of course, Jim Strub is our able president and he's assisted by Mary Gallagher as vice-president and Margaret Rickerd as secretary. Marilyn Caldwell handles the financial matters. Jean Anderson takes care of our stacks of music and we're well represented in the Student Council by Roger Balk. Pot O' Gold solicitor is Charlotte Young and perhaps our most important officer is Drum Major Serviss, who tries to keep order but always ends up by making the most noise himself.

Our room boasts real musical talent. Not only are we the future Met stars but we also have several piano virtuosos; namely, Maggie Rickerd, Mary Gallagher, (who doubles as a soprano when's she's not accompanying the group) and Nancy Carr. You all know the fame of one Joe Henry—well, J. B. belongs to our group of capable basses. (He also enjoys pulling chairs from beneath weary sopranos).

We have sung at a number of interesting places, among them: N. W. Ohio Music Educators Convention, The Toledo Artists Club, DeViltries, Bowling Green High School, the Higg School Choral Festival at the Peristyle in May, and the DeMolay installation. We had several of our best days at the Choral Sing in Cleveland and Toledo's WSPD has played host to us on two occasions.

GIRLS' CHORUS

Well, another year rolls by and the All-Girl Chorus is in its second year, and oh, how we've grown. Most of us know what this organization stands for, but we feel it wise to enlighten some of the newcomers. It is a group of girls who feel they are given ample opportunity to increase their talent and knowledge of music under the direction of Mr. Zaugg.

There are two courses of music a girl may take. If she wants to take practical music, she need only be there three days a week. If taking Applied music she has to take Music Appreciation one day a week and study the book "New Horizons."

At the present time we meet on the stage during fifth hour.

The outstanding activities of the chorus consisted of a concert with the A Cappella Choir in December, singing at Rosewood Avenue Church, and participating in the DeViltries in March.

Wilda Jarrett acts as accompanist for the numbers, which are not sung A Cappella.

Under the patient direction of Mr. Zaugg, the chorus sings both popular and classical music. Some of their numbers include "Ave Maria," "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming," "Oh, Dear, What Can The Matter Be?", "Allah's Holiday," from the operetta "Katinka."

The president of this organization is Henry Baehren, a sophomore. Marion Hagerty, also a sophomore, holds the key to vice-presidency, while Zora Zirckel, a senior, acts as secretary-treasurer.

Anyone who is interested in good singing is cordially invited to attend our practices and listen to our sweet voices. Although we have many complaints, we still carry on courageously.

ORCHESTRA

The DeVilbiss orchestra has had another successful year with Mr. Zaugg as our director. When Mr. Zaugg took over the orchestra this year, it gave him complete charge of the music department at DeVilbiss.

Bill Rudy heads our organization as president; Joe Henry is vice-president (and assistant director when Mr. Zaugg is out of town); Kathleen Henry is our secretary (and we also trust her with our financial dealings). We are represented in the interclub council by Jim Huffer and Carolyn Freed is our concert mistress.

In order to raise money for our music funds and to interest younger children in joining our orchestra in the future, we have given concerts at the grade schools in the DeVilbiss district. It was fun to go back to our old schools and get a glimpse of our former teachers.

One day a week the students who are taking orchestra for full credit study music appreciation. We have an exceptionally fine text book which tells the story behind many famous compositions. Usually we are able to get the records of the pieces referred to in the book. This also helps to make the course interesting.

This spring there will be an Ohio convention in Cleveland. They are having a 250 piece string orchestra which will be conducted by Guy Frasier Harrison, a well known conductor from Rochester, New York. The musicians will be sent from high schools from all parts of the state. We are proud to say we are sending five violins, two cellos, and a flute for this occasion.

To end our year's activities we will have an annual picnic just before school is out.

The president is Donna Biehler; vice-president, Maryanne Papenfuss; secretary, Shirley Christofel; treasurer, Elenor Stone; chaplain, Donna Rowe; program chairman, Grace Pizer.

This is the second year the Sub-Debs have been organized since the start of the war. The club now has thirty-five junior and senior members. The Sub-Debs meet every first and third Tuesday evening in one of the member's homes. Initiation was first on our list for entertainment. The co-chairmen were Joanne Birkenkamp and Donna Rowe, with Maryanne Pappenfuss, Shirley Ruhl, Elaine Wilkenson, Grace Pizer, and Margaret Cole on the committee. This was followed by installation of officers. Connie Netter, and Maryanne McGuire were co-chairman and Ruth Cane, Charmaine Smith, and Virginia Grocott were on the committee. The first big event was our "Scarecrow" barn dance held in a barn in the country. Marilyn Warner and Audrey Drew were co-chairmen, assisted by Lois Cannon and Shirley Ruhl. Jane Laures and Elaine Wilkinson were elected as co-chairmen for the Sub-Deb pins. Joanne Birkenkamp, Marilyn Boysen, Jackie Broth, Iva Rothlisberger, and Margaret Cole were on the committee for a roast held in Ottawa Park on April 7. Connie Netter and Maryanne McGuire were co-chairmen for a theater party held on April 27. They were assisted by Shirley Spurgeon, Jayne Burmeister, and Margaret Cole.

The Sub-Debs had a great loss when their adviser, Mrs. Luther, broke her hip and was confined to the hospital.

There was a big turnout for the dance after the DeVilbiss-Central basketball game. Maryanne Pappenfuss, Connie Netter, Virginia Grocott, Jackie Broth, and Glenda Crosby were on the committee. The Sub-Debs ended the year with their annual all-day picnic held in Pearson Park, and the election of officers for the following year.

49'ERS

One of DeVilbiss' newest organizations, the "49'ers," was an outstanding contribution toward the entertainment of the freshmen of DeVilbiss this past year. When the parents of last year's eighth graders realized their children were excluded from the youth canteens, the inspiration for a club catering only to freshmen was carried through to a reality.

The idea was originated by some of the mothers at DeVeaux School and rapidly spread to all grade schools sending students to DeVilbiss. Almost immediately two pupils of each grade school in this district were elected to represent their school at a meeting that was held here at DeVilbiss. With the aid of our principal, Mr. Nauts, and mothers representing the different schools, the plans were formulated. Then with the commencing of school in the fall the "49'ers" were ready to have their first night of dancing and other forms of recreation.

The group in charge of this club is headed by Miss Lois Enteman. Working with Miss Enteman is a steering committee composed of one representative from each freshman homeroom.

On September 14, 1945, the opening events of the "49'ers" took place. Dancing, ping pong, checkers, cards, and a snack bar were the featured attractions.

After the second party a need was felt for a little extra entertainment. The steering committee decided to call for talent from the freshman class to perform at each party. During the intermission of the party on October 19, 1945, the first floor show was offered with great success.

In keeping with our theme of originality, the night of January 25, 1946, was made a guest night where each member was allowed to invite one friend to attend the party as a guest. This party was such a huge success that it was decided to set aside the April 5th party for another guest night.

The opening game for the Tigers turned from an apparently easy victory over Scott to a heart breaking defeat, with a final score of 13—14. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Tigers began to move in the second with Mallory going over for the first score, but Nappenbach's placement was blocked. Nappenbach carried the ball over for the second score and Danko converted. Bob Robison was the boy who did the damage. First he passed to Bill Black for Scott's initial score. Next he broke away for a 71 yard run, scoring Scott's second touchdown. He also kicked both of the all-important extra points.

Central Catholic invaded Page Stadium to beset the Tigers in their lair. Big Dick Boyer had a field day. He took the ball over for two scores and passed to Erno for another. DeVilbiss started its touchdown march early in the second period with Mallory intercepting a pass. After several line plays that were unsuccessful, Nappenbach fell back to pass. Mallory took it on the 12 and continued to the one. Danko then went over on a sneak and also added the extra point from placement.

In the midst of a near cloud-burst, Woodward's Polar Bears outmudded and outswam the DeVilbiss Tigers to the tune of 12—2. They scored their first touchdown without DeVilbiss handling the ball, Foore bucking over from the two. Nappenbach took the kick-off for what looked like a touchdown run, but was pulled down by the Woodward safety man. The next Tiger threat came in the third quarter with the Tigers on the Woodward 15 yard line. On the third down Nappenbach threw a pass meant for Mallory in the end zone. Wilusz intercepted on his own three and dashed 97 yards for the score.

When DeVilbiss went across the river to play the state champs they expected to be ridden into the dust. While the score was lopsided, the Tigers played one of their best games of the year. They were the first to score on Waite with Nappenbach racing 80 yards for the touchdown. Gregus scored one for Waite in the first quarter. In the second quarter Waite pushed three touchdowns across. Gillespie got two and Kelley marked up the last Waite score when he loped 27 yards to paydirt. The second half was played to a deadlock—neither team scoring. Two Tiger threats, by Todd on a 63-yard run and Nappenbach on a 70-yard dash, were both stopped by remarkable goal-line stands.

The trip to Scott's stadium provided the Tigers with their only win, revenging that first 14—13 defeat at the hands of the Bulldogs. Mallory went over for the first score after eight plays. Scott bounced back with a touchdown when the Bengals kicked off to them, with Blankely going over for the score. The next marker was made when Nappenbach barreled over from the four. Bob Dixon set up the next score by recovering a Scott fumble and Todd went over for the score. The last score saw Todd going over after a 64-yard march featuring Todd, Nappenbach, and Mallory.

Central Catholic was the first city team to hold the Tigers scoreless. The first quarter saw Nappenbach keeping the Irish away from the DeVilbiss goal line with his long punts. Midway in the second stanza the Irish marched 73 yards for their first score. In the second half Central literally rolled over the Tigers, scoring four touchdowns. They added two points by tackling Dick Saxer in the end zone after a fine goal line stand by the Tigers.

Woodward's second try at Page Stadium provided the Polar Bears with their fourth win over the Tigers in the last two years. The Bears were outplayed by the Tigers throughout most of the game, but the local's goal line threats were frequently stopped by numerous penalties. Woodward's touchdown was scored by Foore, who snagged a pass thrown by Wilusz. Wainscott's score was called back on a penalty.

In the only out-of-town game, Sandusky traveled to Page Stadium to play the Tigers to a 7-all tie. After a hard-fought scoreless first half, each team crossed the goal line once in the last half. The fast-charging DeVilbiss line recovered a fumble on the visitor's 20-yard line. On the second play Nappenbach traveled his way to the two for a first down. Then he skirted right end to score. Danko converted the extra point. Sandusky returned the kick-off to the two yard line, where the Tigers dug in and made the Streaks struggle for four downs before relinquishing the ball. Benner tied the score by adding the extra point.

The Waite High Indians traveled across the river to give the Tigers their worst defeat of the year 45—0. The Indians showed the strength that gave them the mythical State Championship.

The annual Thanksgiving game saw the Tigers going to Libbey to be defeated 13—0. The game was played on a hard frozen field. Several Libbey players used sneakers which enabled them to run with some degree of security. The first half was scoreless. At the beginning of the second half Bob Nappenbach took off his shoes playing the rest of the game without them. Ted Bey was the outstanding player for Libbey, being instrumental in both Libbey touchdowns. The Tigers scored one touchdown in the fourth quarter but it was nullified because Chuck Waidelich stepped out of the end zone to catch Nappenbach's pass.

BASKETBALL

The 1945-46 basketball season was not the best the school has seen, but it was one that showed that we were again coming up. We lost five games by six points or less which could have been DeVilbiss victories if one or two breaks would have gone our way. The Tigers worked under three different coaches during the season which is a very great handicap. Under the last coach, Bob Rettig, they seemed to gain the desire to win games, starting with the fight and determination to out-jump and out-fight the opposition.

In the opening game the Tigers completely outclassed a hard-fighting team from Whitehouse. Whitehouse scored only five points in the first half. In the second half the reserves played most of the time, letting coach Kuhlman see what he had to work with. Sophomore Jim Maher led the scoring with nine points.

The game with Monroe was just about the same as the opening game. The Tigers played a fine defensive game holding Monroe to four free throws in the first half.

The opening of the city basketball league saw DeVilbiss matched against a strong Scott team. The game was very slow in starting, neither team scoring until the middle of the first quarter. The second half was played on even terms. Final score 34—22, Scott on the long end. The second meeting was a 22—29 defeat for the Tigers.

The Tigers first out-of-town trip took them to Lima to be pitted against two of the best teams in the State, Middletown and Lima Central. The Tigers had trouble in the first half of the Lima Central game, as they couldn't seem to hit the basket. In the second half they found themselves and came within 4 points of winning the game. The Middletown game was just the opposite, the Tigers playing the State Champs to a 15—12 half time score. However, the Bengals fell apart in the second half scoring only 8 points.

The DeVilbiss basketball team partially revenged the earlier defeats at the hands of Waite in football. The Tigers had a safe lead throughout most of the game. It was a rough game, fouls being an important factor in the final score. The Tigers traveled across the river to take the second game 23—40.

Macomber came to DeVilbiss highly favored over the Tigers. The Bengals entered the game determined to knock the first place Craftsmen off their high perch. The Tigers gave the Craftsmen one big surprise by throwing a zone defense which took them completely unawares. DeVilbiss started with a 6—1 lead in the first three minutes. In the second quarter the Craftsmen began to find the hole in the Tigers zone defense, going ahead 16—15. A high scoring third quarter saw both squads hit the hoop steadily with Ahrendt and Spohler shining for the Tigers. A long field goal by Andrews at the final second of the period brought DeVilbiss to a 21 all tie. In the fourth quarter Macomber tallied four quick points to pull into a comparatively safe lead. Macomber resorted to ball-freezing tactics which the Tigers could not break. The final score, 35—32.

In their last out-of-town trip the Bengals made a clean sweep of Bowling Green and Wauseon. The Tigers tripped Bowling Green by the margin of one point, 32—31, while they had comparatively little trouble with Wauseon, defeating them 48—36.

The Libbey game was one of those heartbreakers. We lost 36—31. The game was close all the way through. In the second round of play the south side boys came to DeVilbiss to absorb their worst defeat of the year. The game started as a high scoring contest, but both teams settled down to a tight defensive game. The 29—16 final score was one of the lowest during the year.

Sparkling offensive play by a rejuvenated Central team gave the Tigers their worst defeat of the year. The Irish controlled the ball most of the game. The second meeting was a hard fought game, neither team having a very big lead at any time. The Irish outlasted the Tigers 33—36.

The Tigers went into the district tournament very much the underdog to a strong Rossford team. DeVilbiss played one of its best games, to humble the Bulldogs 37—34.

The win over Rossford took the Tigers to a semi-final game with Woodward. The game wasn't decided until the last minute of play. Woodward was ahead 38—36 in the last minute when the Tigers missed several chances to tie. Woodward added a foul to cinch the game.

At the ninth annual banquet given the basketballers by the Ottawa Exchange Club, Captain Norbert Todd was voted the most valuable player. Dick Ahrendt and "Dutch" Spohler were selected co-Captains for the coming year.

TRACK

The 1945 track team was one of the youngest ever to run on the DeVilbiss cinders. Only two seniors were on the team and they were competing for the first time. At the beginning of the season Denny Day, sprinter, and Bob Brown, polevaulter were elected co-captains.

In city competition the speedsters were never given much trouble, but on reaching the District Meet at Bowling Green, Wauseon came close with 31 points to the Tigers 45 point score. This was the sixth straight year that the speedsters have taken the District Meet.

Day, DeVilbiss star sprinter, and Duane Hall, half-and-quarter-miler, should be two of the best men in their events in the state. Jim Crumley and Chuck Woodfill teamed up in the high-hurdle event were only beaten once in city competition. The freshman class was represented by Jack Schultz in the sprints and relays.

The Scott meet proved the closest, with Scott scoring 45 points against our 75. Crumley and Woodfill started the scoring with a first and third in the high hurdles respectively. Crumley beaten by Walt Hoover who later became District champ in both hurdle races. Following the hurdles was the 100 yard dash with Day and Schulz starting against Scott's vaunted Dick Gross. Coming across the finish line it was Day first, Schulz second and Gross third. From this point on the Meet was clearly a DeVilbiss victory. While the Wauseon meet was not close in scoring it had one distinction in that it was the only city meet that Captain Day was second best. He was beaten by Hal Robinson who set a new track record for the 220 yard dash.

In the District Meet the orange and black had at least one man in the finals of every event. Hall taking first in the quarter-mile. Day was second to Robinson in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and the broad jump.

DE VILBISS NIGHT RELAYS

After a lapse of four years the DeVilbiss Night Relays were revived. All Class A and B schools in Ohio and southern Michigan were invited to attend. Approximately thirty schools attended, many holding records from previous meets. Scott, holder of the record for the four lap relay; Mansfield, winner of the first meet in 1939 and holder of the one and two lap records; Bryan, Sandusky, and Waite, who also hold records. DeVilbiss, the host, also holds two records—the 100 yard dash and the shuttle hurdle relay.

The Night Relays were under the direction of Norm Pollman. He was assisted by Dennis Day, Duane Hall, Joanne Birkenkamp, Sue Warnke, Jean Decker, and James Crumley, who served as a general planning committee.

Three new events were added to the competition this year. They were the shot put, discus throw, and the broad jump. Teams for field events are composed of three men from each school, the highest total winning; for running events, four man teams compete.

The class B events were run at the same time as the class A events, the difference being that the participants come from smaller schools. Class B schools included: Clyde, winner of the 1941 class B title and holder of records for distance medley relay, one lap relay, and 100 yard dash; Elmore, holder of three records; Old Fort and Swanton.

DeVilbiss showed outstanding all-around strength in winning the Class A title for the third time, amassing the largest number of points ever made by an A team—69½. DeVilbiss scored firsts in three relays and three individual events. Other Class A teams in the order they finished were: Upper Sandusky, Scott, Bowling Green, and Central.

In Class B, Clyde again ran away with the honors. Compiling 83 points to 57½ points of their nearest rival Delta, the flyers took six firsts. In third spot was Old Fort, followed by Swanton and Pettisville. Trophies were awarded by the five relay queens to the winning relay teams and medals to members of these teams and individual victors.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Cross-country is one of the least glorified sports on the high school calendar, although it requires an extra amount of determination from every participant. Our cross-country team had a fairly successful season. They finished well up in the city meets. Waite took first place as they won the city crown. In second place was Woodward, followed by DeVilbiss, Central and Scott. Constant high man for DeVilbiss was Junior, Walt Churchill, followed by Chuck Petro, Duane Hall, Dick Grimes. Waite took first place as a team in the district meet, although Ted Gernhauser, Woodward star, led the runners over the finish line. Finishing in fifth place, DeVilbiss was led by Walt Churchill and Duane Hall, winning gold and silver medals respectively.

The team looks forward to a strong season next year, as it will be composed of returning veterans from this year's squad.

With one of the best teams ever to represent DeVilbiss on the golf links, our golfers, after being upset by Macomber in the District Meet went on to take third place in the State Meet. Clarence Pawlicki, captain, was low man for the year. The team won seven matches, tied one, and lost one for an excellent season. The fine team of Sylvania Burnham High downed us by a scant one point at our first match but the second match closed with a twelve point tie.

LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL

The opening game for the DeVilbiss lightweights, against the Libbey reserves, set the Kittens back to the tune of 13—0. The Libbey touchdowns came in the second half, with Bey and Penrod going over for the scores. A long pass from Harbaugh to Terry climaxed the only DeVilbiss threat but this was stopped when the Cowboy line stiffened.

Waite's Indian reserves proved to be too much for the Tigers' Kittens when the locals traveled across the river. The Waite offense was just too much for the lighter DeVilbiss team, with the Indians continually ripping off long gains. Waite finished on the long end of an 18—0 final score.

The Kittens first score came in the Scott game. A pass from Harbaugh to Kelentic brought the Tigers those first six points. Although Scott scored 14 points the DeVilbiss reserves felt that the Tigers should have taken the game because two of their touchdowns were called back on penalties.

The Kittens last game, against Woodward, provided them with their only win of the year. Jenkins carried the ball over and Boyd sparkplugged the team with his punting and long runs. There were two more scores by the Tigers but they were called back because of offside penalties, leaving the final score 6—0.

LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL

The DeVilbiss lightweight basketball team under Coach Don Sharpe, as well as providing a proving ground for varsity material, turned in a fairly good record of its own. They won six out of seventeen games. The lightweights were composed of seven juniors and eight sophomores. They took their first three games from Whitehouse, Monroe and Scott. They lost three before they broke back into the victory column with a thrilling two point win over Central. The next win was an easy victory over Wauseon. In the second round of competition they won only one game, that coming from Woodward, which at the time was in first place.

ATHLETICS

Notwithstanding her diminutive stature, Miss LOIS ENTEMAN'S dynamic personality has caused her to be admired by all her associates. Having first taught at Robinson Junior High School, Miss Enteman came to DeVilbiss in 1939. She received her B.S. Degree at Michigan State Normal College, and her Master's Degree at the University of Michigan. Not only does she act as an advisor of the G.A.S., but also guides the newly established freshman club, The Forty-Niner's. Her enthusiasm toward the Girls' Athletic Society has helped it to become the largest organization in the school, and the tie that binds all the DeVilbiss girls together through fair play and sportsmanship.

Ashtabula's loss was DeVilbiss' gain when Miss JANE BRINT left her position as Supervisor of Physical Education to come to Toledo. Having graduated from DeVilbiss High School and the University of Toledo, Miss Jane, as she is affectionately called by all of us, is really a native Toledoan. She hopes to attend the University of Southern California this summer and study for her Master's Degree. This year, while Miss Enteman made a short visit to Florida, Miss Jane ably took over her duties as advisor to the Forty-Niner's. Although she has only been with us for two years, she has made many friends and is recognized as an able teacher and helper.

Mrs. JANE TERHELL has long been a source of advice and counsel to the Leader's Club, of which she has charge, and to every other DeVilbiss girl. Mrs. Terhell taught at Waite and Libbey before coming to DeVilbiss. She received her B.S. Degree from Michigan State Normal College and is willing to advise any girl interested in studying physical education as to requirements, course of study, or aptitude. Along with her other responsibilities, Mrs. Terhell acts as the head of the Physical Education Department and as one of the advisors of the G.A.S. Mrs. Terhell enjoys traveling immensely, but we all hope no matter how far she travels she will always return to DeVilbiss.

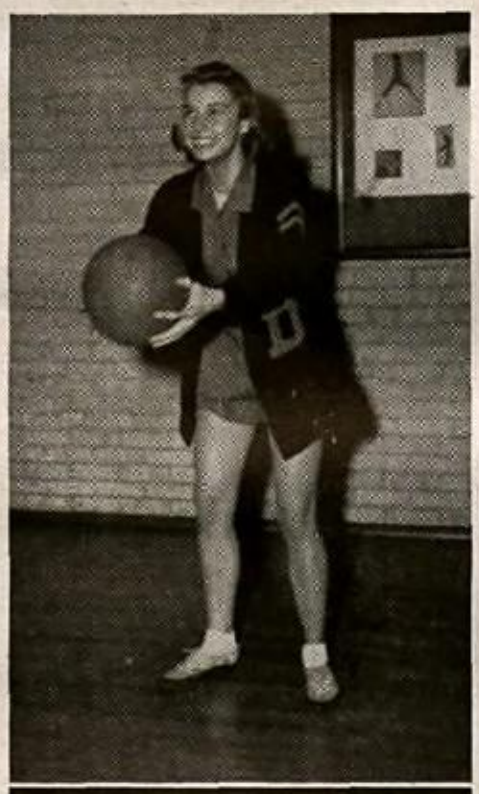
ATHLETICS



GIRLS' ATHLETIC

With high spirits and bubbling enthusiasm, the Tadites of DeVilbiss High School ushered in the hockey season. While the seniors, juniors, and sophomores enjoyed hockey, the freshmen played fieldball and soccer. These latter two games familiarized the freshmen with the groundwork of hockey. "White" suits were in evidence when the seniors lined the hockey field. Eleanor Pioch and Charmaine Smith burrowed their way through many layers of lime. In October, JOANNE BIRKENKAMP, our new Girl's Athletic Society President, introduced the G.A.S. to the freshman girls at a roast in Ottawa Park. Eleanor Stone and Connie Netter managed to leave a few morsels of food for our guests, the freshmen, and a good time was had by all.

At Christmas time the spirit of giving was high so we gave a party for the children of the Lutheran Orphans' Home. Every two girls "adopted" an orphan for the day and acted as hostess for her. Each child was given two gifts, an article of clothing and a toy. The refreshments were greatly enjoyed (as usual) and every orphan went home happy and contented. Donna Rowe, Maryanne McGuire, and Barbara Renn seemed to manage very well with their three year-olds except for frequent nose-blowings and trips down the halls. The games, such as farmer in the dell, a tisket a tasket, and cat and mouse, were enjoyed more by the G.A.S. members than by the orphans.

The sophomore G.A.S. members showed their versatility and intelligence by successfully sponsoring a roller skating party in November at the Rollercade. The seniors were lamentably absent as it was the night of the senior play. JOANNE AHLFORS, our Vice-President, mopped up the floor with her—knees! Miss Entemann and Miss Jane exhibited their roller skating skill by executing a double, triple, loop-the-loops and other amazing feats. Everyone limped home, tired but happy.

The new year of 1946 ushered in the basketball season. The freshmen's first introduction to basketball was very successful and everyone managed very well except a few misguided girls who insisted on using boys' rules. The sophomores, old hands at the game by now, welcomed the return of basketball. Although many of us weren't as spry as usual because of hockey wounds, we managed to play many fast and furious games. The juniors and seniors had a rough and tough tournament. The playing got too rough for Leona Blank who was carried off the floor on a stretcher. The referee then took the club away from Ginny Grocott and the game continued. Phyllis Tanber and Betty Weick stopped their fist fight long enough to watch Joanne Less strangle the scorekeeper for misspelling her name. All good things must come to an end, and so we completed our basketball season at the end of March with the inter-class tournament. Surprise!! the freshmen beat the sophomores. Surprise! the freshmen beat the juniors. Surprise! the seniors beat the freshmen. This is the first year that any freshmen team has ever come up to standard. MARYANN PAPENFUSS, our reporter, was the most popular senior in the tournament—she supplied the gum!

SOCIETY

In April we gave our mothers a chance to come to a tea at school so they could better understand the "evil force" which kept us after school so many times, namely, the G.A.S. Different girls discussed Intramurals, Leaders' Club, and the Point System. We especially wish to compliment our Treasurer, SHIRLEY BOOTE, on the wonderful work which she did on our invitations. The most important part of this tea was the awarding of numerals, letters, and silver lockets. Our moms enjoyed such games as cootie, pick up sticks, bunco, and chinese checkers. Once again we arrived at the most interesting part of the tea . . . the food. A delicious and attractive meal was served, one which we all relished. We all enjoyed this informal type of tea much more than a formal one.

The next sport of the year was volleyball. This appears to be a very mild and untiring sport, but when DeVilbiss girls play it, anything can happen. The rafters, windows, walls, or even bones are in danger of being smashed. Volleyball often reveals hidden strength, as the time when Mary Jo Feak sent the ball whizzing through the roof. Seriously, volleyball is a game which takes strength and skill.

Does your Pop look different lately? Does he look bent and crippled? Does he look old and tired? If so, he has probably been to the G.A.S. Pop's Night. After a strenuous evening of baseball, volleyball, and foul shooting, poor old Pop is worn to a frazzle! Of course, daughter is still fresh as a daisy (I hope to be able to leave my crutches home any day now). After we finished with all these exhilarating (?) activities, we managed to stagger down to the cafeteria for a "light" lunch of six or seven hot-dogs, four bags of potato chips, and five bottles of milk. About this time attention was centered on RUTH KANE, our Secretary, who had just consumed thirteen bags of potato chips, paper and all.

Strike three! ye'r out. I'm sure most of you recognize this all too familiar cry. Yes, it's baseball. When the weather started to turn warm we got a little restless and tired of looking at steel rafters and brick walls. Then we knew it was time to go out and play baseball. Few of us were future Caseys or Babe Ruths, but we managed to play many fast and furious games. Of course, there were a few unusual girls who never struck out and always caught the ball. There were far too few of these in the G.A.S. We were all glad when spring and nice weather came so that we could play baseball.

At the end of the school year, there comes the end, for some of us, of our fun in high school days. Then comes the G.A.S. banquet. For we who were seniors, it was the end of our comradeship and achievement in the G.A.S. For others it was just the beginning of their good times. After the fun and hilarity was over, even realistic JEANNE DECKER, our Historian, got a lump in her throat when we sang some of the old traditional G.A.S. songs. This year, two senior girls, Joanne Birkenkamp and Mary Ann Papenfuss, reached the goal sought for by all girls since they were freshmen; that of receiving their gold lockets.
